Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 20. to Sunday November 24. 1690.

At the Court at WHITEHAL,
the 20th of November, 1690.

Present,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having received Information, That notwithstanding many former Orders, Divers Masters of Ships, permitted to go out to the Plantations, East-India, Africa, and to the Dominions of Spain and Portugal, have presumed to take and keep on Board more English Seamen than have been allotted to each Ship by the Commissioners of the Customs, or been given in upon Clearing at the Custom-house. His Majesty in Council was this day pleased to Order the Right Honourable the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England, to Appoint fit Persons to offer a Bond to the Masters of Ships that shall go out of the Downes, or other Port or Harbour of this Kingdom, to the Parts above-mentioned, to be Entered into by the said Masters of Ships, whereby they shall stand obliged in the Penalty of Forty Shillings per Tun for the whole Burthen of each Ship, neither directly nor indirectly to cause or suffer any one or more English Sailor or Sailors more than the Number given in upon Clearing at the Custom-house, and allowed by His Majesty, to be taken or kept on Board; And that in case any Masters of Ships permitted to go Out, shall Refuse or Delay to Enter into such Bond, a Stop or Embargo be laid upon the said Ships, until such Bonds be Entered into by the Masters respectively; The Persons appointed to Search the said Ships, being likewise directed to Publish and make known, As it is hereby Ordered and Declared, That if any Sailor, Passenger, or other Person, shall discover the Fraudulent Dealing of any Master herein, the Person discovering the same, shall receive for a Reward of his or their Service One fourth part of the Value that shall accrue to His Majesty by the Forfeiture of each Bond respectively. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take notice, and to Govern themselves accordingly.

William Blathwayt.

Milan, November 1. Our Governor the Count de Fuenfaldia is returned to Piedmont, and with him is gone the Marquis d'Obizzi, who, after having conferred with the Duke of Savoy, will repair to the other Courts of Italy, to which he is sent by the Emperor, to demand Assurances, for the defence of their common Interests.

Turin, November 4. The Duke of Savoy having given Audience here to the Marquis d'Obizzi, Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor to the Princes of Italy, returned on the 29th of the last Month to his Camp at Moncater. The 30th the French decamped from Racouigi, and having abandoned Savilian and Vossan, and blown up the Castle of Villa Franca, marched towards Piagnol, near which place they lie now Encamped, and it's thought they have a design upon the Pass of Susa. Our Duke has sent two Regiments to reinforce that Garrison, and is marched with his whole Army to Rivolle, Prince Eugene of Savoy being advanced with the Imperialists as far as the Plain of Masfalle, the better to observe the Enemies Motions. On the first instant the French sent a Detachment to burn Barge, but the Inhabitants of the place, with the assistance of a Party of Vandois, received them so warmly, that they forced the Enemy to retire with the loss of many of their Men. And on the 2d, the Vandois defeated another French Party that was going to Casal, and took 48 Prisoners. Our Camp has been lately reinforced by some Spanish Foot and Horse, and we are daily expecting 800 Neapolitans. A Detachment of Foot and Dragoon, has been sent to join the Marquis de Pareto Lieutenant-General of the Dukes Forces, who is drawing a Body of Men together in order to post himself near Lucerne.

Venice, November 3. By a Vessel which came from Vallona on the 23d of the last Month we have advice, that the Fleet intended to sail from thence the next day for Corfu, where they are to winter. And that the Garrison at Vallona, with the help of the Country People, were already at work on several new Fortifications, for the greater security of that place.

Vienna, November 12. On the 7th instant arrived here a Lieutenant-Colonel from Esbeck, bringing with him five Standards, taken by that Garrison in a late Salley they made upon the Enemy, which is presented to the Emperor, with this account; That the place was besieged by about 16000 Turks, (who appeared before it on the 29th past) commanded by the Bassa of Bosnia, and Mustafa Bassa, but that they were ill provided with Artillery, having only 6 Pieces of one Pounders, two 8 Pounders, and two Mortars. The 30th the Enemy opened their Trenches. The 2d of this Month they began to play their Cannon and Mortars. The 3d, the Duke de Croÿ, with a Party of the Garrison, went out to view the Enemies Works and Approaches, and had his Hat shot off by a Musquet Bullet. And on the 4th, the Besieged with 200 Foot and 100 Horse made a vigorous Salley, and beat the Turks out of their Trenches, ruining part of their Works, killing near 300 of them, and taking divers Prisoners, with the five Standards before-mentioned.

On the 9th arrived another Officer from Esbeck, being dispatched by the Duke de Croÿ, with advice of the Raising of that Siege; he said, That after their successful Salley, on the 4th the Duke de Croÿ understanding by the Prisoners that the Enemy were informed, that General Bathiani was marching with several Imperial Troops to their assistance, (as indeed he was, but without any possibility of reaching that place in several days) and that they designed to make a general Assault before this Relief arrived, he used this Stratagem to make them believe that the Succors were come; In the night he caud 400 Horse in two Squadrons to march out of the place, who being got to some distance from it, separated, and then advanced again in two Bodies, making all the noise they could with their Trumpets and Kettie-Drums, which the Enemy hearing, and believing they were the Troops under Enemy Bathiani, they immediately ceased to work in their Trenches, and the 6th in the morning quitted their Camp, and marched away in great confusion, leaving behind them 4 Pieces of Cannon, a considerable quantity of Ammunition and Hand-Granades, and part of their Baggage. The Duke de Croÿ perceiving the Enemies Retreat, sent out a Party of Hussars, who fell upon some of their Rearmost Troops, and put them to flight, and brought back several Prisoners, who reported, That the Turks began to quit their Trenches the 5th in the Evening, upon a false Alarm they had of the approach of the Imperial Succors. This good news is confirmed by the Duke de Croÿ himself, who arrived here on the 10th, having left in Esbeck a Garrison of 1300 Men.

The Grand Visier was, by our last Advice, still at Belgrade, endeavouring to repair that place, and to put it into a condition of defence. And 12000 Turks were about to pass the Tibisque, in order to relieve Great Waradin.

An Express arrived here on the 6th instant from Prince Louis of Baden, who left him on the 24th of the last Month encamped with the Imperial Army, consisting of 5000 Men, near Cronstadt in Transilvania, near the Borders of Valachia, within an hours march of Teckley, being resolved to march towards him the next day, and to try once more to engage him to a Battel, which he had so often avoided.

Cologne, November 21. The Brandenburg Troops that are to have their Winter Quarters within this Diocesis, are now on their march thither. But the Forces of Lunenburg have all rep.led the Rhine; and are going home, and of those of Munster there will only remain two Regiments of this side We have an account from Strasbourg, that the Marquis de Logy with several General Officers is gone for Paris, leaving the Marquis d'Uxelles to command the French Forces in Alsace. They write from Bisff, That the Suisse Cantons had had a General Meeting at Baden, upon the late Memorial of the French Ambassador concerning the Works designed at Huwingen, and that they had given so sharp and resolute an Answer to the said Ambassador, that 'twas believed the French would not think it to go on with those Works.

Paris, November 18. The Place of Secretary of State, and Superintendent of the Marine, vacant by the death of the Marquis de Saligny, is given to the Sieur de Pomharzin Comptroller-General of the Finances, who is likewise declared Minister of State. The Cardinal of Bouillon is arrived at Lyon in his return from Rome, and is expected here on Monday or Tuesday next. The Duke of Luxemburg is now at Court, but it's said, that he will suddenly return to Flanders; and we are told, that an Equipage is preparing for the Dauphin, which is to be ready by the end of this Month. The Letters from Savoy of the 6th instant say, that the French Army decamped the 3d of this Month from Grezilque, and came to Airandol; that Monsieur Catinet had sent his Artillery with a Detachment of 2000 Men towards Susa, and that he intended to march on the 7th with the rest of his Forces, in order to attack that place. The French Guards are returned from Flanders, and those that attended the Court this Summer are going to Winter there.

Brussels, November 22. Our Governor-General the Marquis de Gassanaga returned hither on the 11th instant from Flanders, after having settled divers Affairs with the States of that Province. The Prince and Princess of Vaudemont parted from hence on the 18th instant for Italy, whither he is going with the Leave of the King of Spain to make use of the hot Baths at Pozzolo in the Kingdom of Naples. A French Party came the last week to Enguien, and another of 1200 Horse marched at the same time to Geersbergen with a design to burn the neighbouring Villages, but our Troops quartered thereabouts drawing together, the French upon their approach retired with all the halt they could. The French have possessed themselves of a small place called Thuin on the Sambre, which they fortify, and we are told, that Monsieur de Boufflers is there himself with 8000 Men to cover the Workmen. On our side Lieutenant-General d'Hubuy is posted with 8 Squadrons of Horse at Nivelle, and strong Garrisons are put into all the Frontier Places. We hear, that the Duke of Luxemburg is expected shortly at Lisse.

Hague, November 24. The States of Holland met again yesterday; And their Deputies were both yesterday and this day in Conference with those from the respective Admiralties about Sea Affairs. The Heer Van Opdam is gone by order of the States to Bouillon, to make a Regulation with the French Commissioners, about the Exchange of Prisoners. The Letters from Vienna of the 12th instant bring the News of the Raising of the Siege of Esbeck, the Turks leaving behind them 4 Pieces of Cannon and 2 Mortars, with a considerable quantity of Ammunition, and greatest part of their Baggage. The Letters from Lisbon of the 24th past, give an account of the death of the Infanta of Portugal.

Dublin, November 14. Lieutenant-General Ginkle, and Major-General Scravenmore, came hither last night; and Sir John Lauer and Major-General Kirke are now likewise here, to regulate Matters with the Lords Justices about the Winter Quarters. There is a report, that 10 or 12 French Ships are come to Galloway with Provisions for the Garrison of Limerick. But we have certain advice, that a French Fleet with Ammunition and Arms, and 28 French Officers, was some days since cast away at the entrance of the Shannon, and the Men lost. We hear, that the Rapetians, joined with some Irish Troops that came over the Shannon, have lately burnt Philips-Town, upon which 2000 Regiments from the North are sent to possess themselves of the Castles and strong Houses that were left unguarded between Rosferres and Mullingar, to hinder their further Incursions.

Dublin, November 21. Yesterday came into the Downes the Spanish, - - Zedee Master, from Jamaica, who came from thence with about 30 Sail of Merchant Ships more, and their Convoy, but was separated from the Fleet in bad weather. We have had here this week very stormy weather, with the Wind at W. and W. S. W.
