

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1891.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 12th day of January, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the three hundred and thirty-third section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by By-law made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time to do within its district all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section :

And whereas the Waterford Harbour Commissioners, being a Pilotage Authority within the meaning of the said Act, have, in exercise of the powers vested in them by that Act, made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty a By-law with respect to pilotage to be henceforth observed within their district, copy of which By-law is set forth in the schedule hereto annexed :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said By-law is reasonable and proper :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve of, and signify Her consent to the said By-law, as set forth in the schedule hereto annexed.

SCHEDULE.

BY-LAW providing for a Minimum Pilotage Charge in the Port and Harbour of Waterford to be treated as an addendum to Schedule (B.) Part II, of the Act thirty-seven and thirty-eight Victoria Chapter one hundred and sixteen.

Minimum Inward and Outward.

Provided always, that where any vessel does not exceed thirty tons net register tonnage, such vessel shall be charged pilotage rates on one half of the gross register tonnage.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 12th day of January, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of "The Stoke-upon-Trent Rectory Act 1889," of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four ; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety, in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of 'The Stoke-upon-Trent Rectory Act 1889,' of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four ; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church or chapel at Hanley situate in the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church or chapel at Hanley aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Dalrymple Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is identical with the territory described in the nineteenth section of 'The Stoke-upon-Trent Rectory Act 1889' aforesaid, all which part together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church or chapel at Hanley and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Hanley.'

"And with the like consent of the said William Dalrymple Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages baptisms churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church or chapel at Hanley, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid
