

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of February, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme or Representation bearing date the twenty-ninth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Fagan, Aberdare, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Llandaff.

“Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six and published in the London Gazette upon the first day of August following a part of the parish of Aberdare in the county and diocese aforesaid was assigned as a district to the consecrated church of Saint Fagan situate within the limits of the said parish of Aberdare and the same district was called ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Fagan Aberdare.’

“And whereas the said district chapelry of Saint Fagan Aberdare has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

“And whereas by the authority of another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the seventeenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of the same month the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Fagan Aberdare were altered so as to comprise within its limits another part of the said parish of Aberdare and so as to dis sever from the said new parish of Saint Fagan Aberdare a certain portion thereof and to reannex such portion to the said parish of Aberdare.

“And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Fagan Aberdare should be further altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London

Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Fagan Aberdare shall be altered so that all those two portions of the said parish of Aberdare which are described in the first and second parts of the Schedule hereunder written and which are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and are thereon coloured pink shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Fagan Aberdare; and that in like manner all that portion of the new parish of Saint Lleurwg Hirwain in the county and diocese aforesaid which is described in the third part of the Schedule hereunder written and which is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured yellow shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Fagan Aberdare.

“And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

“The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Fagan Aberdare in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff, comprising:—

“I. All that contiguous portion of the parish of Aberdare in the county and diocese aforesaid wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, and which is bounded upon the south-east by the said new parish of Saint Fagan Aberdare upon the south-west partly by the same new parish and partly by the new parish of Saint Lleurwg Hirwain situate partly in the said county of Glamorgan and partly in the county of Brecon and wholly in the diocese aforesaid (inclusive of the hereinafter described portion of the last-named new parish) upon the west and upon the north-west by the parish of Penderyn in the said county of Brecon and in the diocese of Saint David's and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north-east by the new parish of Cyfarthfa, in the said county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff aforesaid.

“II. All that other contiguous portion of the said parish of Aberdare wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, and which is bounded upon the south-east by the new parish of Saint Margaret Aberaman in the said county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff aforesaid, upon the south-west and west by the parish or parochial chapelry of Ystrad-y-fodwg in the same county and diocese, upon the north-west by the new parish of Saint Lleurwg Hirwain aforesaid (including the hereinafter described portion of the same new parish) and upon the east partly by the said new parish of Saint Fagan Aberdare and partly by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Fagan Aberdare from the parish of Aberdare aforesaid, at the point in the middle of the Dare River distant two chains or thereabouts to the west of the Dare Viaduct which carries the line of the Aman Branch of the Great Western Railway
