"III. All that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint Lleurwg Hirwain which is bounded upon the south-east partly by the secondly hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Aberdare aforesaid and partly by the new parish of Saint Fagan Aberdare aforesaid upon the east and upon part of the north by the firstly hereinbefore described portion of the said parish of Aberdare, and upon all other sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the north and upon the west by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary dividing the said firstly herein described portion of the parish of Aberdare from the new parish of Saint Lleurwg Hirwain aforesaid joins the boundary dividing the said county of Glamorgan from the county of Brecon aforesaid at which point the stream called or known as Nant Hir joins the Cynou River, and extending thence generally westward along the middle of the last-named river for a distance of forty-seven and a half chains or thereabouts (thereby following the said county boundary) to the point where the same river is joined by the stream called or known as Nant-y-Wrenddu, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named stream for a distance of twenty-three and a half chains or thereabouts (thereby passing to the west of the house called or known as Pant-yr-ysgawen, and passing under the line of the Aberdare and Hirwain Tramway, and under the line of the Hirwain Common Railway, and then following the western branch of the same stream) to the centre of the bridge which carries the Hirwain-road over the said western branch or the same stream, and extending thence in a direction due south, and in a straight line for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing Slade's Patch) to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Lleurwg Hirwain from the secondly hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Aberdare aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of February, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the fifth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Rhyl, in the county of Flint, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-third day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four and published in the London Gazette upon the fifteenth day of October in the same year a part of the parish of Rhuddlan in the said county of Flint and in the diocese of Saint Asaph aforesaid was assigned as a chapelry district to the consecrated church situate at Rhyl within the limits of such parish and the same chapelry district was called 'The Chapelry District of Rhyl.'

"And whereas the said chapelry district of Rhyl has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the new parish of Rhyl should be altered in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Alfred George Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or repre-
