

sentation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Rhyl shall be altered so that all that portion of the said parish of Rhuddlan which is described in the Schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Rhyl.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Rhyl in the county of Flint and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Rhuddlan in the same county and diocese wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of that part of the township of Brynhedydd which is bounded upon the east by the township of Rhydorddwy in the said parish of Rhuddlan upon the north by the sea upon the west by the said new parish of Rhyl and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Rhyl from the parish of Rhuddlan aforesaid at the point opposite to the gate at the entrance to the house called or known as Merllyn in the middle of the road which leads from Rhyl to the house called or known as Rhydorddwy-fawr and to Henafon and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of forty chains or thereabouts (thereby following for a short distance the boundary which divides the said township of Brynhedydd from the township of Trellewelyn in the parish of Rhuddlan aforesaid) to the point where such road crosses the boundary which divides the said township of Brynhedydd from the township of Rhydorddwy aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patron and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Asaph.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 23rd day of February, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health burials in any part or parts of the Metropolis, or in any burial grounds or places of burial in the Metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that, from and after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such part or parts of the Metropolis, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial grounds or places of burial affected by such representation shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places, within the part or parts of the Metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month, at the least before such representation is so considered; Provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, late one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving notice to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk of the parish of Plumstead of his intention to make the representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the twelfth August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, affecting burials in the Plumstead Parish churchyard, should be varied by substituting for the directions therein contained, with respect to burials in the said churchyard the following directions viz.:

That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Plumstead,
