

ving deliver'd his Letters here, went on to Newbourg, to carry this advice to the Elector Palatine. Yesterday the Imperial Commissioner communicated to the Dyet the Emperor's Approbation of their late Conclusions about the Restitution of the Duchies of Lorraine and Deuxponts, and the Guaranty of the Alliance with the Duke of Savoy. Containing in substance, as follows.

His Imperial Majesty having been made acquainted with the Conclusion of the States assembled here, on the 29th of August last, concerning the Dutchy of Lorraine, and having well considered the Contents thereof, does not only think it reasonable, and for the common Good of the Empire, but likewise looks upon himself to be obliged, together with the whole Empire, as well in consideration of the several Treaties and Alliances established between the Empire and the House of Lorraine, as of the extraordinary Services done to his Imperial Majesty, the Empire, and all Christendom, by the late Duke of Lorraine, to procure to his Heirs and Successors, Dukes of Lorraine and Barr, a full Restitution of all the Duchies and Lands, of which they are unjustly dispossessed by the Crown of France, with Reparation for the Damages and Losses they have sustained; and to that end, that the Ministers of Lorraine, when a Treaty of Peace shall be set on foot, shall be admitted thereunto, and furnished with the necessary Passports. And therefore his Imperial Majesty does confirm and strengthen with his Imperial Authority the said Conclusion of the Dyet.

His Imperial Majesty having seen the Memorial presented in the name of the King of Sueden as Pfalzgraf of the Rhine, concerning the Dukedom of Deuxpontz, which the French have forcibly possessed themselves of, and the Conclusion of the Dyet taken thereupon on the 30th of October last, does confirm and approve thereof, and will endeavour in the most effectual manner the performance of the same.

His Imperial Majesty being informed of the Conclusion of the Dyet on the 2d of October, concerning the Guaranty of the Treaty Concluded between his Imperial Majesty and the Duke of Savoy, he does Approve and Confirm the same.

Frankfort, November 30. The Deputies from the States of Franconia have had several Conferences with the Saxon Commissaries about the Winter Quarters for those Troops, and we hear, that all Matters are adjusted between them, and that the said Forces will be lodged near the Rhine and the Neckar, to protect the Country against the IncurSIONS of the Garrison of Philipsburg. They write from Muncken, that the Elector of Bavaria has resolved to assist the Emperor with 4000 men, who will begin their march towards Hungary some time the next Month; and that his Electoral Highness intends to take very suddenly a Journey to Vienna, to concert with that Court the Preparations for the next Campaign.

Hamburg, December 1. The Suedish Auxiliary Troops are come back from the Rhine, and are going into their Winter Quarters in Pomeran and Bremen. The Elector of Brandenburg arrived the 27th of the last Month at Hanover.

Falmouth, November 27. Yesterday came in here the Antelope of London from Jamaica, having about 3 weeks ago been separated in bad weather from the rest of her Company.

Plymouth, November 30. The 24th instant arrived here the Richard and Sarah, and the 26th the Endeavour, both belonging to London, and homeward bound from Jamaica. Yesterday failed from hence Their Majesties Ships the Porosmouth, the Mitford, Pembroke, and Nantwich, to the Westward. And this afternoon we discovered several Sail in the Offin, which is supposed to be the Squadron commanded by Sir Claude Shove.

These are to give Notice, That whosoever discover Captain James Campbell, and Archibald Montgomery, named in Their Majesties Proclamation of the 15th of November last past, so as that they may be apprehended, or either of them, shall for such discovery of the said Captain James Campbell, have 100 l. Reward, and for such discovery of the said Archibald Montgomery, 50 l. Reward, paid by Sir Byerly at his Chamber in the Temple.

Proposals for Printing Athene Oxonienses, and the Fall of the Jane, both written in English by the famous Historiographer Anthony a Wood; It contains an exact History of all Writers Educated in the University of Oxford, and of all Archbishops, Bishops, &c. whether of this or any other Kingdoms; The Birth, Fortune, Preferment, and Death of all those Authors and Prelates, the great Accidents of their Lives, and more particularly the Fate of their Writings, and Characters of their Works, are here given, concluding at the end of this year 1690. Such likewise of the Authors of the University of Cambridge are comprehended, as were Entered, or at any time Studied at Oxford, or Assisted in Opposed any Author of that University. The whole Work will be Published in two Volumes in Folio, the first at Easter Term next, the second at Trinity. Proposals with a Specimen are delivered Gratis, and Subscriptions taken, by the Undertaker Thomas Bennet at the Half-Moon in St. Pauls Church-yard, and by several other Booksellers in London, and in most Cities and Towns in England.

Advertisements.

LORE lately a hollow Gold Ring with Hair drawn in it, set round with small Diamonds, with the Letters R. D. M. on the inside. Whoever brings it to Edward Jones, Printer, in the Savoy, shall have a Guinea Reward.

At the Kings-Arms Tavern against St. Clements Church in the Strand, on Tuesday the 5th instant, at 3 after Noon, will be a Sale of several Original Paintings, and other fine Copies, by the best Masters, large Pieces fit for Halls, Stair-cases, &c. and several rare Prints and Drawings, so continuing daily till all be sold.

At the East-End of Exeter-Exchange in the Strand, above Stairs, on the 9th instant, will be sold by Auction Mr. De Rycks famous Collection of Original Pictures by the best ancient and modern Masters, viz. Raph. D'Urbino, Rubbens, De Vos, Antoni Maro, &c. Attendance for viewing is given every day, and Catalogues are preparing; therefore those that have any Pieces to bring in, are desired to do it speedily.

This present Thursday, and Friday, will be continued the second Sale of Paintings next Bedford-Gate in York-Street Covent-Garden, far beyond the last, so remarkable in the place, the best Pictures remaining now to be disposed of, beginning at 2 after Noon. Catalogues may be had at Mr. Marshs at the black Bull in Cornhill, Mr. Parkers under the Exchange, Mr. Bellords in St. Pauls Church-yard, Mr. Ropers near Temple-bar, and at Mr. Notts in the Pall-mall.

This present Thursday, at the corner of Birch-lane in Cornhill, will be continued by Auction (without a Catalogue) a great number of English Books in divers Volumes and Faculties, (several whereof hitherto not exposed to view) from 10 till 9 at night, being designed to be continued daily for five Weeks till all be sold.

ON Saturday the 22d past, about Midnight, the Houe of Mr. Christopher Purnell near Thornbury in Gloucestershire, was broken up by several Men, one tall, with brown Hair, and two with grey Clothes and black Hats, and stole away 400 l. in Money, 6 silver Spoons, 2 whereof marked with L. P. one with C. P. and another with S. P. a gilt silver Bowl with C. P. &c. a Sword with a large inlaid Hilt, and some wearing Clothes. Whoever secures the Persons, Money, or Goods, and gives notice to the said Mr. Purnell at Thornbury, or to Mr. Thomas Tuckey at the One Bell Inn in the Strand, London, shall have 5 l. for each Person, and 10 per Cent. for Money and Goods.

George Welch, a short Man, aged about 40, having thin black brown Hair turning to grey, somewhat bald, having one Eye-lid drawn a little down by an Inflammation, and one of his Fingers broken at the outer Joint; Run away from the Parsonage Houe of North-Huis in Devon, on the 21st of October last, with Money and other things, to the value of 200 l. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Ben. Sparway of Dartmouth in Devonshire, or to Mr. Arth. Gandy at the Feathers in Milk-Street, London, shall have 5 l. Reward.

Run away from his Master the 7th past, an Indian Boy, born when 11 and 12 years old; he had on a Fustian Frock, a black Cloth Coat, and a pair of Leather Breaches, having 2 holes in his Ears, a blue stroke between his Eye-brows, and short black Hair; he is called Jack, whose Indian name is Motaw. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Francis Forbess, Merchant, in Ballyard against the Monument, London, shall be well Rewarded.

Lost the 15th past from John Fowkes of Woodnes in Bedfordshire, a bright bay Gelding about 15 hands, full aged, had all his Paces, a Star in his Forehead, a Knob on his Back, and his further Foot behind white. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Thomas Barrar, Leatherfeller, at the Mermaid in Chancery, or to the aforesaid John Fowkes, shall have a Guinea Reward, and Charges.