In Parliament.—Session 1891.

London Tramways Bill.

(Petition for Additional Provision with reference to Transfer of Powers to London County Council; Working of Proposed Tramways by London Tramways Company Limited; Regulation of Traffic; Use of Tramways by other Companies; Limitation of Hours of Employment on Tramways; Confirmation of Agreements, &c., &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session, by Petition for additional provision, for leave to insert in the Bill now pending in the House of Commons under the above name or short title, provisions to effect or make provision for effecting the following, or some of the following objects (that is to say):—

1. The transfer to, and the exercise if thought fit by the London County Council (hereinafter called "the Council"), of all or some of the powers proposed to be conferred upon the London Tramways Company Limited (hereinafter called "the Company,") by the said Bill, including the powers for the construction of the tramways sought to be authorized by the said Bill.

2. The leasing of the said tramways to and the working thereof by the Company, and the payments whether by way of rent or otherwise, to be made by the Company to the Council in respect thereof, and of the user of the roads.

3. The regulation by the Council of the traffic on the proposed tramways, and of the working thereof, and as to the fares to be charged in respect of traffic using such tramways.

4. The use of the proposed tramways by any other Company with the sanction of the Council.

5. The limitation of the number of hours during which persons may be employed on or in connection with the tramways of the Company.

And it is proposed to sanction, confirm, or give effect to any contracts, agreements, or arrangements which may have been or may be entered into between the Company and the Council with reference to any of the matters aforesaid, and to confer upon the Council all such powers as may be necessary for the construction, maintenance, repair, and renewal of the tramways proposed to be authorized by the Bill, and for otherwise enabling them to carry out the above objects and to vary or extinguish all or any rights or privileges which are inconsistent or would interfere with the execution of any of the intended objects of the said additional provision, and to confer other rights or privileges.

Dated this 24th day of April, 1891.

JULIUS O. JACOBS, 16, St. Helen's-place,
