

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday December 11. to Monday December 15. 1690.

Naples, November 14.

OUR Viceroy continues his Applications for the assisting the Governor of Milan with Succors of Men and Money, according to the Directions he has received from the Court of Spain. There has within these few days been felt in Calabria several small Earthquakes, but they have done no considerable damage. The Gallies of Sicily are gone home; and three of the Squadron of Turfis are arrived here. Two days ago a Man of War was calt away on this Coast, but the Men, to the number of about 200, were saved; They pretend to have been in the Service of the Venetians, and that they came last from Vallona, but it's rather believed, that they are Corsairs.

Rome, November 18. The Spanish Ambassador had on Saturday last an Audience of the Pope, and the Cardinal Gurtz the next day, to desire that one of the Vacancies in the College of Cardinals might be disposed of at the Emperor's nomination; but on Monday the Pope held a Conistory, where he promoted Francisco Barberino and Lorenzo Altieri to the Dignity of Cardinals, and at the same time declared Signor Bartoli Patriarch of Alexandria. The Cardinals in the Imperial and Spanish Interests were not present at this Ceremony; nor did the Ambassador of Spain, or the Emperor's Envoy, make the following Nights the Bonfires and Illuminations that are usual on such occasions. On Tuesday the French Ambassador had an Audience of the Pope, to Compliment him upon this new Promotion; and on Thursday a Publick Conistory was held, in which the Pope gave the new Cardinals their Hats with the accustomed Formalities. Our Gallies that lately returned from the Levant are laid up, but they will go out again early the next Year, with double the number of Land Soldiers, that were sent the last to the assistance of the Venetians. The Pope seems likewise resolved to contribute all that depends on him for a vigorous Prosecution of the War in Hungary, towards which he has already sent a supply of Money, and intends to send more very suddenly.

Milan, November 21. Our Governor is expected here in few days from Piedmont, his Horfes and Baggage being already arrived. We have advice, that the Marquis de la Parella, who lately took Craiteau Dauphin, is marched with the Troops under his command towards Dauphin.

Lemberg, November 16. The Polish Court is at Zolkiew, where a Courier arrived this week with the Treaty of Marriage between the Prince of Poland and the Princess Palatine of Hungary, which will be now shortly solemnized, the Bishop of Pofnia going for that purpose Ambassador Extraordinary to the Court of Neubourg. The King of Poland has summoned a great Council to meet at Zolkiew, to consult about the Preparations that are to be made against the next Campaign, and the dispatch of the Tartar Envoy, who arrived there several Months ago with a Commission from the Cham, to offer his Mediation for the making a Peace between this Crown and the Turks. The Tartars have lately put a Convoy of Provisions into Camimiec, and have since made a great Ravage on our Frontiers.

Stockholm, November 29. The Count de Staremberg Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor arrived here on Sunday last, and has since had a private Audience of the King, and a Conference with his Principal Ministers about the present Juncture of Affairs. It's said, he comes to desire an assistance of several thousand Men against the Turks.

Vienna, November 30. The last Letters from Esbeck gave an account, that they had sent out several Parties, who went as far as the Save without meeting with any of the Enemies Troops, or learning any other news of them, than that the Grand Visier was retired from Belgrade, in order to put his Forces into their Winter Quarters. Prince Louis of Baden was, by our last advice, advanced with the Imperial Forces under his command to Samos Vivar, having sent 4 Regiments before towards Upper Hungary, to assist General Nigrelli, who had passed himself on the Theisse to secure the Bridge of Zolnecke, and consequently to hinder the Turks from passing that River. General Hensler, who was a Prisoner with Teckley, has obtained his liberty, having left two Officers as Hostages for the payment of the Ransom that has been agreed on. The Turks have put strong Garisons into Lippa, Giula, Fenus, and Great Waradin.

Basle, November 30. We are expecting, with some impatience, the return of the Express which the French Ambassador has sent to Paris, to acquaint the King his Matter with the last Resolution of the Suisse Cantons about the new Works designed at Humingen; to which, a stop is given in the mean time. So soon as this Courier, and that sent to the Emperor, are come back, there will be held another General Dyet at Baden, about the Neutrality of the Forest Towns, and the Bishoprick of Basle.

Hedelberg, December 4. We are working very hard on the Fortifications of this City, and shall have a very good Garison here this Winter. The Marquis d'Uxelles, who at present commands the French Forces in Alsace, is now an L. n. d. e. which the French are fortifying; They are likewise making some new Fortifications for the defence of their Bridge of Boats at Pflappurg.

Berlin, December 5. Their Electoral Highnesses of Brandenburg arrived here last night, but the Elector intends, so soon as he has dispatched some publick affairs, to return towards Hildesheim, and from