

On arrival at the West Entrance of the Chapel Her Highness The Bride was received by The Lord Chamberlain, and joined by the Bridesmaids who had previously assembled in the Room prepared for them near the West Entrance.

The Choir of St. George's Chapel who had been stationed at the West Entrance of the Chapel, preceded the Bridal Procession and sang a Hymn, composed by The Bishop of Ripon, as The Bride passed up the Nave.

At the Entrance to the Chapel, the Choir filed off and took their places in the South Aisle, whilst The Bride, with Her Highness's Supporters, was conducted to the Haut Pas.
