

in all their places between the Sambre and the Meuse; and are now hard at work to fortify Limburg.

Plymouth, December 11. On Monday last came into St. Ives a small Vessel from Limburg, having on Board 20 Irish Soldiers with their Arms, who pretend to have deserted from that Garrison, and that they stole away this Vessel, designing for some Port in England; They say, that there were no Succors arrived there from France. On Tuesday came in here the Pomeroon Frigate: She met the day before out of Spain a French Man of War of about 36 Guns, (and two more were in fight) with whom she exchanged several Broadides, but the Weather parted them. The Virginia Ships, now in this Port, will sail to-morrow, under the Convoy of the Portsmouth and the Pomeroon, for the Dunes.

Plymouth, December 14. This morning the outward-bound Merchant Ships, with their Convoys, were under sail, but the Wind coming Westerly presently after, they are not yet gone out. Yesterday arrived here the Katherine of London from Majorca.

Portsmouth, December 16. On the 13th instant sailed from hence to the Eastward the Phoenix, with several Merchant Ships under her Convoy.

Dial, December 15. Yesterday arrived in the Dunes Their Majesties Ships the George and Phoenix, having under their Convoy several homeward-bound Merchant Ships.

Whitehall, December 12. His Majesty has been pleased to appoint William Probert Esq; to be High-Sheriff of the County of Rutland for the Year ensuing.

Whitehall, December 15. His Majesty having appointed Sir Charles Porter to be one of the Lords Justices and Lord Chancellor of Ireland, he set out this day accordingly on his Journey towards that Kingdom.

Whitehall, December 16. The President de la Tour, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Savoy, had yesterday his Audience of Leave of the Queen Dowager, being conducted by Sir Charles Corbett Master of the Ceremonies.

The late blowing Weather, and contrary Winds, having hindered the passage of the Pacquet-Boats, we are now wanting three Mails from Holland, and five from Flanders.

There are to give Notice, That whatsoever discourse Captain James Campbell, and Archibald Montgomery, named in Their Majesties Proclamation of the 15th of November last past, that at least they may be apprehended, or either of them, and for such discovery of the said Captain James Campbell, and Mr. Reward, and for the delivery of the said Archibald Montgomery, shall be Reward, paid as the Statute in that behalf made.

They are to give Notice, That the said Commissioners of Their Majesties Treasury have appointed John Duncomb Esq; to be Receiver General of Their Majesties Revenue of the Customs of Beavers and Becks, in the place of Mr. William Jones deceased; To whom all Persons concerned are desired to pay their said duties accordingly, at his House at the Bute-chamber in Hatton-Garden.
