Downing Street, August 10, 1891.

THE Queen has been pleased to appoint Andrew Louis Ballion, Esq., to be a Member of the Legislative Council of the Falkland Islands.

BY virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George III, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes;" and of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to further limit and define the time for proceeding to Election during the Recess."

I do hereby give notice, that it hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament, that the Right Honourable William Heneage Legge (commonly called Viscount Lewisham), late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the Parliamentary Borough of Lewisham, is become a Peer of the United Kingdom, and that a writ of Summons hath been issued to him under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom to summon him to Parliament, and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said Parliamentary Borough of Lewisham, at the end of six days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand this eleventh day of August, 1891.

LEONARD COURTNEY.
