 24. His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjab had suggested to me that the presence of Mr. R. Uday, Commissioner and Superintendent, Peshawar Division, might be advantageous when discussing matters in which tribes other than Orakzai should be involved. I readily accepted the suggestion, and invited Mr. Uday to join me, which he did at Mastan on the 5th May. His presence at once cleared away difficulties which had threatened to interrupt my programme; measures were adopted for allaying the suspicions of the Afridis as to our intentions with regard to Tirah, and I was enabled to visit the Mamuzai and Alisherzai countries without producing any external complications. Mr. Uday accompanied me, and I wish to record my sense of the great public service he rendered in a difficult and delicate situation.

25. In March last I expressed the hope that Major H. P. P. Leigh's services during January and February might be favourably regarded by the Government of India, and that the services rendered by his assistants, Lieutenant C. M. Dallas and Messrs. F. B. R. Spencer and D. Donald, might also be recognized. Major Leigh has again been my political adviser throughout the recent operations, and again I desire to record my sense of the great value of his work. His intimate knowledge of border matters and his talent in dealing with the tribes seem to fit him pre-eminently for a responsible position on the frontier, and to point to his advancement being for the public good. Lieutenant Dallas has been selected to remain as civil officer on the Samana after the reduction of the garrison. He has again proved himself a most capable officer, and I am sure that his selection is a good one. Messrs. Spencer and Donald have also again assisted Major Leigh, and have in all respects upheld the good opinion I formed of them during the operations at the beginning of the present year. I trust that the native gentlemen mentioned by Major Leigh may receive the recognition of Government for the loyal assistance they have given him.

26. The Telegraph Department under Mr. O. Burne, Assistant Superintendent, was thoroughly efficient in the field, and I quite agree in the terms of commendation employed by him with regard to those working under him in the report which I submit separately.*

27. Mr. A. Bean, of the Postal Department, carried on his duties to my satisfaction.

28. The excellent work done by the Public Works Department under Mr. W. Macdonald, Executive Engineer, especially in the matter of road-making, merits my warm acknowledgments.
