

person, and shall be carried to the Assessors' Fund.

Any such regulations shall not have effect until approved by a Secretary of State, and shall from time to time be amended or rescinded as he directs.

3. Subject to, and as prescribed by any such regulations, a fund for the remuneration of the assessors may be formed as follows :

(1.) Every person requiring the attendance of one or more assessors, may be required to pay in advance such fee or fees as the regulations direct.

(2.) The prescribed Judge or Officer may, out of any moneys in his hands arising from fees of Court or other fees, or moneys received under the Principal Order, advance or pay the amount of the salary or remuneration of an assessor.

(3.) The prescribed Judge or Officer shall from time to time account for all receipts and payments in respect of the Assessors' Fund in such manner as the Secretary of State from time to time directs.

And the Most Honourable the Marquis of Salisbury, K.G., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, is to give the necessary directions herein. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of November, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS "The Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883, amongst other things, provides, by section thirty-nine, that the exhibition of an invention at an Industrial or International Exhibition, certified as such by the Board of Trade, or the publication of any description of the invention during the period of the holding of the exhibition, or the use of the invention for the purpose of the exhibition in the place where the exhibition is held, or the use of the invention during the period of the holding of the exhibition by any person elsewhere, without the privity or consent of the inventor, shall not prejudice the right of the inventor or his legal personal representative to apply for and obtain provisional protection and a patent in respect of the invention or the validity of any patent granted on the application, provided that both the following conditions are complied with, namely :—

(a.) The exhibitor must, before exhibiting the invention, give the Comptroller the prescribed notice of his intention to do so ; and

(b.) The application for a patent must be made before or within six months from the date of the opening of the exhibition.

And whereas the said Act further provides, by section fifty-seven, that the exhibition at an Industrial or International Exhibition, certified as such by the Board of Trade, or the exhibition elsewhere during the period of the holding of the exhibition, without the privity or consent of the proprietor of a design, or of any article to which a design is applied, or the publication, during the holding of any such exhibition, of a description of a design, shall not prevent the design from being registered, or invalidate the registration thereof, provided that both the following conditions are complied with, namely :—

(a.) The exhibitor must, before exhibiting the design or article, or publishing a description of the design, give the Comptroller the prescribed notice of his intention to do so ; and

(b.) The application for registration must be made before or within six months from the date of the opening of the exhibition.

And whereas Her Majesty, by virtue of the authority committed to Her by the provisions of the Patents Act, 1886, is empowered by Order in Council from time to time to declare that the provisions of the said Act of 1883 above recited shall apply to any exhibition mentioned in the Order in like manner as if it were an Industrial or International Exhibition certified by the Board of Trade, and to provide that the exhibitor shall be relieved from the conditions specified in the said herein-before recited sections of the said Act of 1883.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said Act of 1886, doth declare and it is hereby declared that the provisions of the foregoing sections of the said Act of 1883, shall apply to the International Exhibition of Arts, Industries, and Manufactures to be held at Chicago, State of Illinois, United States of America, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three ; and further, that the exhibitor of an invention, a design, or any article to which a design is applied, shall be relieved from the conditions specified in the said hereinbefore recited sections of the said Act of 1883 of giving notice as therein required of his intention to exhibit such invention, design, or article to which a design is applied. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of November, 1891.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of the Pluralities Act 1838 after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes ; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and
