*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, January 9, 1892.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for the Colonies, a copy of the enclosed Notice, issued by Her Majesty's Representative at Mauritius:—

No. 347 of 1891.

Amendment of Chapter III of Quarantine Regulations No. 142 of 1888.

His Excellency the Governor directs the publication, for general information, of the following amended Chapter III of the Quarantine Regulations No. 142 of 1888.

HUBERT E. H. JERNINGHAM,
November, 30, 1891. Colonial Secretary.

CHAPTER III.

SUPPLIES AND CHARGES.

Supplies, &c., by whom furnished.

IX. All necessaries, food, and attendance will be furnished to persons in quarantine by the Storekeeper-General at a fixed rate per diem, any difference between the actual cost and the rate recoverable being paid by Government.

Classing of Passengers and others.

X. Every person on landing at a quarantine station shall enter in a book to be kept for the purpose by the Steward, his name and address, and whether he wishes to be supplied with first, second, or third class rations. Any person omitting to comply with this rule will be classed by the Steward.

Charges Recoverable.

XI. The following charges are payable and recoverable before the proper Court from persons who have classed themselves or been classed by the Steward:—

	Rs.
Third class	0.75
Second class	1.5
First class	4.00

Provided that it shall be in the discretion of the Magistrate to reduce the account, if he be satisfied that the food or lodging or attendance supplied was unsatisfactory.

Steward to obey Orders of Storekeeper-General.

XII. In everything connected with rations and supplies of all kinds to persons in quarantine stations, the Steward of the station shall be bound to obey all lawful orders of the Storekeeper-General.

Lodging.

XIII. The lodging provided will be in proportion to the messing rates paid. The Superintendent will allot the different bungalows in the exercise of his discretion, and under general instructions from the Chief Medical Officer.

Made and passed by the General Board of Health at a meeting held on the 11th November, 1891.
