FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1892.

Whitehall, February 19, 1892.

THE following further Addresses and Resolutions of Condolence, on the occasion of the death of His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale, K.G., &c., have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation to The Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the County Council of Salop, beg respectfully to tender to Your Majesty this expression of our profound regret at the loss which the Nation has sustained by the untimely decease of His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, and our sincere and earnest sympathy with Your Royal House in the sorrow and bereavement of the present hour.

We, in common with Your Majesty's loyal subjects throughout the Kingdom, deplore the loss of one who was so well fitted to adorn his high station.

We earnestly pray that Your Majesty may be supported in this heavy affliction.

In witness whereof we have caused our common seal to be hereunto affixed, this 23rd day of January, 1892.

J. Bowen Jones,
Vice-Chairman of the County Council.

E. C. Peele,
Clerk of the County Council.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty The QUEEN of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of New Windsor, do respectfully offer to Your Majesty our unfeigned sympathy and condolence in the sad loss which Your Majesty's Royal House has sustained by the death of His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, K.G., K.P.

Given under the Common Seal at a Special Meeting of the Town Council, held on the 14th day of January, 1892.

James Brown, Mayor.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most devoted and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Wells, in Council assembled, approach Your Majesty with sentiments of the most profound attachment and fidelity.

The lamented decease of His late Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence and Avondale has excited in our minds the deepest regret, and we respectfully offer our sincere condolence on the severe bereavement which Your Majesty has sustained.

Our sympathy is deepened on this melancholy occasion when we reflect that it has pleased Divine Providence to remove His Royal Highness from our midst in the dawn of a career that was so full of promise.

We sincerely trust that God may give You strength to bear so heavy a calamity. And that Your life may long be preserved to reign over an attached and devoted people is the fervent prayer of Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the city of Wells.

Given under our Corporate Common Seal at the Council Chamber of the said city this 20th day of January, 1892.

Jonathan Slater, Mayor.
Eward. T. Foster,
Deputy Town Clerk.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Ruthin, in the county of Denbigh, beg very respectfully to approach Your Majesty on the sad occasion of the lamented death of Your illustrious Grandson, His Royal Highness the late Duke of Clarence and Avondale, and offer the assurance of our deep regret and sympathy on the irreparable loss which Your Majesty has so suddenly and unexpectedly sustained.

We fervently pray that the Almighty God in His infinite wisdom, may support and strengthen Your Majesty in this grievous sorrow, and grant
