

10. The following poundage shall be paid in respect of Telegraph Money Orders :

	s.	d.
For sums not exceeding £1 ...	0	4
For sums above £1, but not exceeding £2 ...	0	6
For sums above £2, but not exceeding £4 ...	0	8
For sums above £4, but not exceeding £7 ...	0	10
For sums above £7, but not exceeding £10 ...	1	0

Such poundage shall in every case be prepaid.

11. In addition to the poundage payable for a Telegraph Money Order, the person at whose request a Telegraph Money Order is issued shall pay for the telegram authorizing payment at the office of payment, and for the repetition thereof after the rates authorized by the Telegraph Acts, 1863 to 1885, and the regulations made from time to time thereunder.

12.—(1.) In case payment of a Telegraph Money Order is required, and no authority to make such payment has been received by the Postmaster, the Postmaster may, at the request of the person requiring payment, send to the Postmaster of the alleged office of issue a telegram enquiring whether payment has been authorized as alleged (which telegram is hereinafter referred to as a Telegram of Enquiry).

(2.) The following rules shall apply to a Telegram of Enquiry :

(a.) It shall be written by the Postmaster at the office of origin on the "A" form.

(b.) The "A" form shall bear postage stamps representing the amount payable (in accordance with the provisions of the Telegraph Acts, 1863 to 1885, and the regulations for the time being made thereunder) for the transmission of the Telegram as an ordinary Telegram, and for a reply thereto.

(c.) Such stamps shall be cancelled by the dated stamp of the office as in the case of an ordinary Telegram.

(3.) The Postmaster of the alleged office of issue shall reply by Telegram to a Telegram of Enquiry.

(4.) The person requiring payment of a Telegraph Money Order, at whose request a Telegram of Enquiry is sent shall prepay the charges for such Telegram, and for a reply thereto, after the rates authorized by the Telegraph Acts, 1863 to 1885, and the regulations made from time to time thereunder.

(5.) If it shall appear that there has been default on the part of any Officer of the Post Office in transmitting authority for payment of the Money Order in question with reasonable despatch, the amount paid for the Telegram of Enquiry and the reply thereto shall be refunded to the person at whose request such Telegram was sent.

(6.) In any such case as last specified where any question arises as to whether reasonable despatch has been used the decision of the Postmaster-General upon such questions shall be final.

13. No Telegraph Money Order shall be issued for a greater amount than £10.

14.—(1.) Payment of a Telegraph Money Order will be made at the office specified in the original requisition, or at such other office as the person at whose request the Order was issued, or the person to whom payment of the said Order is to be made, may request.

(2.) In any case in which payment is desired at an office other than that specified in the original requisition application for such payment must be made in the case of an Order issued at an office in England or Wales to the Controller of the Money Order Office, General Post Office, London; in the case of an Order issued at an office in Scotland to the Accountant, General Post Office, Edinburgh; and in the case of an Order issued at an office in Ireland to the Accountant, General Post Office, Dublin. Such application must state the particulars of the Order and the name of the office at which payment is desired.

(3.) If from any cause payment cannot be made to the person in whose favour the Money Order has been issued, the amount of the Telegraph Money Order will be paid to the person at whose request the Order was issued; in the case of an Order remitted from any office in England or Wales on application to "the Controller of the Money Order Office," General Post Office, London; in the case of an Order remitted from any office in Scotland on application to "the Accountant," General Post Office, Edinburgh; and in the case of an Order remitted from any office in Ireland on application to "the Accountant," General Post Office, Dublin.

(4.) Repayment will in all cases be made in accordance with the Rules for the time being in force as to the payment of Money Orders.

15. Payment of a Telegraph Money Order will in all cases be subject to the possession by the Postmaster at the office of payment of sufficient funds for the payment thereof, and all Telegraph Money Orders shall be deemed to be issued subject to this condition.

16. Subject to the provisions of these Regulations the Regulations made under the Post Office (Money Orders) Acts, 1848 and 1880 (other than such as relate to Postal Orders as defined by such Regulations), shall apply to Telegraph Money Orders.

Dated this twenty-ninth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

James Fergusson,
Postmaster-General.

Approved on behalf of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury—

Sidney Herbert.
