AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is enacted by "The County Courts Act, 1888," that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to alter the number and boundaries of the Districts and the place of holding any Court, and to order the discontinuance of the holding of any Court, and the consolidation of any two or more Districts, and the division of any District, and to order by what name and in what towns and places a Court shall be held in such District.

And whereas it is expedient that the Parish of Coleshill be removed from the District of the County Court of Warwickshire holden at Solihull, and added to the District of the County Court of Warwickshire holden at Birmingham.

Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two the Parish of Coleshill shall cease to form part of the District of the County Court of Warwickshire holden at Solihull, and shall form and be part of the District of the County Court of Warwickshire holden at Birmingham.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the four hundred and tenth section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, upon the completion of any new Lighthouse, Buoy, or Beacon, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the Master or Owner of every ship which passes the same, or derives benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may from time to time alter the amount thereof; and that such dues shall be paid and collected in the same manner, by the same means, and subject to the same conditions, in, by, and subject to which the Light Dues authorized to be levied by the said Act are paid and collected:

And whereas the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses have established or are about to establish two Lighthouses on Fair Isle:

And whereas it is fit and proper that in respect of the said Lighthouses dues should be levied as hereinafter mentioned:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that, from and after the date of the exhibition of both Lights, or from and after the time of the receipt of notice of the present Order, if that be later, by the officers authorized to collect Light Dues, on all vessels, whether

British or Foreign, which may pass or derive benefit from these lights by navigating between the Orkney and Shetland Islands, and on all vessels which shall pay toll for either Sumburgh-head or North Ronaldshay Lights, shall be paid the following rates:

One penny halfpenny per ton of the burden of every such ship if on an oversea voyage, and three-sixteenths of a penny per ton if on a coasting voyage, for each time of passing or deriving benefit.

The said tolls shall be levied subject to the regulations and exemptions contained in the Consolidated Tables of Light Duties, sanctioned by an Order in Council dated the twenty-fourth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, or to such other regulations and exemptions as may from time to time be duly sanctioned, and subject also to the gross abatement or discount of sixty-five per centum, mentioned in the said Order in Council, dated the twenty-fourth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, or to such other abatement or discount as may for the time being be in force.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty cap. one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty cap. eighty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Wallsend in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle between that benefice and a certain other benefice (being a new parish and vicarage) of Saint Luke Wallsend in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle is the patron in right of his See of the said benefice of Wallsend and also of the said benefice of Saint Luke Wallsend.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of Saint Luke Wallsend is at present insufficiently endowed and that the said benefice of Wallsend has endowments of such an amount as that after the apportionment hereinafter recommended and proposed shall have been made out of the same endowments the said benefice of Wallsend will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Ernest Roland Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle is of opinion and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said new parish of Saint Luke Wallsend by that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Wallsend which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said benefice of Wallsend is now full of a clerk and the rector or incumbent
