C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 18th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, in the words following, that is to say;

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the parish of Cheriton in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury, and partly out of the parish of Folkestone in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Cheriton and of the said parish of Folkestone which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas in conformity with the terms of the will of the late Mrs. Catherine Thompson of Seabrook Vale in the said parish of Cheriton, Widow, William Henry Dowling Reeves Welman, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, a Major-General on the Retired List of Your Majesty's Army, and George Wilks, of Hythe in the said county of Kent Solicitor, the trustees of the said will have contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a sum of eleven thousand three hundred and eighty-seven pounds nineteen shillings and five pence upon trust to apply a portion of the said sum amounting to five thousand pounds sterling, with certain accumulations of interest thereon as and for the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and (so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act) then of the said new parish and of the maintenance of the minister or incumbent thereof for the time being, and we have in respect of such sum agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to such minister or incumbent as aforesaid when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the last-mentioned Act a sum which will amount to not less than one hundred and fifty pounds per annum.

"And whereas it is intended that the balance of the said sum of eleven thousand three hundred and eighty-seven pounds nineteen shillings and five pence shall be applied by us in certain proportions towards providing a church for the said district and new parish and a house of residence for the minister or incumbent thereof.

"And whereas the said sum of eleven thousand three hundred and eighty-seven pounds nineteen shillings and five pence has been contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us
