*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, September 16, 1892.*

THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for the Colonies, a copy of a Notice, issued by Her Majesty's Representative at Malta, whereby the following are substituted for paragraphs 7 and 12 of the Government Notice, No. 137, published on the 31st ultimo :—
Valletta, September 5, 1892.
No. 143.

7. Vessels arriving from the Black Sea, from French Ports in the Atlantic and in the British Channel, from ports in Belgium, Holland, Germany, Denmark, and the Baltic Sea shall be allowed to enter the harbour in quarantine for the purpose of coaling, taking provisions, and discharging cargo; provided the coals are brought alongside and put into the vessel by labourers, who shall be kept in quarantine for twenty-one days, and the trimming in bunkers is effected by the resources of the vessel. No susceptible goods, however, shall be landed, and live stock shall be disinfected in the usual way.

Such vessels shall quit the harbour as soon as they have coaled, taken provisions, or discharged cargo.

The unshipping of cargo from such vessels shall be effected by the crew on lighters within a period to be fixed, in each case, by the Collector of Customs.

Passengers arriving by such vessels shall not be allowed to land.

Vessels which have been in any port of the Black Sea, or in any French port in the Atlantic or the British Channel, or in any port in Belgium, Holland, Germany, Denmark, or in the Baltic Sea, but which have afterwards been admitted to free pratique in other ports, shall not be admitted to free pratique in these islands before twenty-eight days have elapsed from their departure from a port in the Black Sea, or from any French port in the Atlantic or the British Channel, or from any port in Belgium, Holland, Germany, Denmark, or the Baltic Sea.

Vessels arriving from any port in the United Kingdom shall undergo strict medical inspection before being admitted to pratique.

12. Soiled linen and wearing apparel shall not be allowed to be landed from any ship which may be under any suspicion of having had recently on board a case of contagious or infectious disease, or from any ship arriving through the Suez Canal, or from Syria, Karamania, or Spain, except after disinfection at the Lazaretto or at such other places as may be appointed by the port Authority.

Soiled linen shall not be allowed to be landed from ships arriving from any port in the Mediterranean or in the United Kingdom, except after disinfection.
