AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 18th day of August, 1892.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of "The Pluralities Act, 1838," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof,

"and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend William Walsham, Lord Bishop of Wakefield, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, represented in a writing dated the eighteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Lord Archbishop of York, as follows:—

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Father in God William Dalrymple by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of York, Primate of England and Metropolitan.

"We the Right Reverend William Walsham Lord Bishop of Wakefield do hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

"That there is in the West Riding of the county of York and in our diocese of Wakefield the rectory of Cumberworth the parish whereof contains according to the last census a population of one thousand four hundred and seventeen.

"The net annual value of the benefice of Cumberworth is one hundred and forty-seven pounds.

"The patronage of the said rectory is vested in Wentworth Blackett Beaumont of Bretton Park in the said West Riding of the county of York Esquire and the Reverend James Whittam L. Th. is the present rector thereof.

"That there is also in the same West Riding and diocese the vicarage of Denby the parish whereof contains according to the last census a population of two thousand and thirty-eight.

"The net annual value of the benefice of Denby is one hundred and seventy pounds thirteen shillings and eightpence.

"The patronage of the said vicarage is vested in the Reverend William Stephenson Turnbull M.A. vicar of Penistone in the said riding and diocese in right of his vicarage and the Reverend Alexander Barrington Orr is the present vicar thereof.

"That a certain district of the said parish of Cumberworth known as Denby Dale lies immediately contiguous to the said parish of Denby and it is proposed to erect a mission chapel there for the convenience of the inhabitants thereof.

"That the patrons and incumbent of the said
