

rectory of Cumberworth and of the said vicarage of Denby are consenting parties to the separation and annexation hereinafter proposed as is testified by their respective hands to the consents hereto annexed.

"That it appears to us that a certain portion of the parish of Denby immediately adjoining the said district of Denby Dale and more particularly described and delineated in the scheme and plan hereunto annexed may under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and six and the second and third years of Her said Majesty chapter forty-nine be advantageously separated from the said parish of Denby and be united and annexed to the said parish of Cumberworth for all ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the first-mentioned Act of Parliament we the said Lord Bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it seems to us that the alterations above proposed may be best effected and how the changes consequent upon such alterations may be made with justice to all parties interested and we do submit the same to your Grace to the intent that your Grace may if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with the said scheme certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council.

"Given under our hand the eighteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

Wm. Walsham Wakefield.

And whereas the said scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the consents referred to in the said representation are as follows:—

"The SCHEME.

"It is proposed to separate a certain portion of the parish of Denby in the West Riding of the county of York and diocese of Wakefield (which portion is particularly described in the schedule hereunder written) from that parish and to annex the same for ecclesiastical purposes to the parish of Cumberworth in the same riding and diocese. The vicar of the parish of Denby shall cease to have cure of souls within the said portion of the parish of Denby and the rector of the parish of Cumberworth shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits thereof.

"The fees for marriages churchings burials and other offices of the church performed for the inhabitants of the said portion of the parish of Denby or arising within the limits of the same and usually payable to the incumbent of a benefice shall belong to the rector of Cumberworth.

"No alteration shall be made as to the patronage or (save as aforesaid) as to the endowment of either of the two benefices affected by this scheme.

"The SCHEDULE above referred to.

"All that portion of the parish of Denby in the West Riding of the county of York and diocese of Wakefield immediately adjoining the parish of Cumberworth in the same riding and diocese and bounded thereby on or towards the west and on or towards the north partly thereby and partly by a road known as White Close-lane on or towards the south-east by a road known as Hollin Edge on or towards the north-east by a road known as Pussy-lane and on or towards the south by the (late) Barnsley and Shepley-lane Head turnpike-road which said portion of the parish of Denby is delineated on the plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured round with a red verge line.

"CONSENTS.

"We Wentworth Blakett Beaumont of Bretton Park in the said West Riding of Yorkshire Esquire M.P. the patron or person entitled to present to the above-named benefice of Cumberworth in case the same were now vacant and the Reverend James Whittam Clerk in Holy Orders L. Th. the present incumbent of the said vicarage of Cumberworth and we the Reverend William Stephenson Turnbull Clerk in Holy Orders M.A. vicar of Penistone in the said West Riding and as such vicar the patron or person entitled to present to the above-named benefice of Denby in case the same were now vacant and the Reverend Alexander Barrington Orr Clerk in Holy Orders B.A. and the present incumbent of the said vicarage of Denby do hereby respectively signify our assent to the foregoing representation and scheme and to the several matters and things therein stated and proposed.

"Given under our hand this fifteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

W. S. Turnbull.

Alexr. B. Orr."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration:

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said scheme, hath certified the same and the consents aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, by his report dated the ninth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, which said report is in the words and figures following:—

"To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned William Dalrymple Lord Archbishop of York Primate of England and Metropolitan do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council.

"That we have received from the Right Reverend William Walsham by Divine permission Lord Bishop of Wakefield a representation in writing under the hand of the said Lord Bishop bearing date the eighteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two stating that it appears to the said Lord Bishop that a certain portion of the parish of Denby in the West Riding of the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield may be advantageously separated from that parish and be united and annexed to the parish of Cumberworth in the same county and diocese for all ecclesiastical purposes.

"That to the same representation is annexed a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the aforesaid alteration may be best effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction dues rates and payments may be made with justice to all parties interested.

"That the said Lord Bishop hath also transmitted to us the consents in writing of the patrons and incumbents of the benefices affected by the said scheme.

"The said representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty's reign chapter one hundred and six certify the same and such
