Lieutenant-Colonel John Ponsonby Cundill, half-pay Royal Artillery, retires on retired pay. Dated 1st October, 1892.

The Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890; the Building Societies Act, 1874; and the Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1876.

WHEREAS by Order XLI, Rule 9, of the County Court Rules, 1892, it is provided that the provisions of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890, and the rules made thereunder, so far as they relate to winding up, shall apply to the winding up of Societies registered under the "Building Societies Act, 1874," and the "Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1876," and that the winding up of any such Societies shall be conducted in all respects as if such Societies were Companies registered under any of the said Companies Acts. And whereas, as regards certain of the Courts exercising jurisdiction under the said "Building Societies Act, 1874," and the said "Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1876," Official Receivers are not attached to the said Courts for bankruptcy purposes, inasmuch as the said Courts do not exercise bankruptcy jurisdiction.

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do hereby order that Charles John Stewart, who has been appointed by the Board of Trade the Official Receiver attached to the High Court for the purposes of the "Companies (Winding-up) Act, 1890," shall also for the purposes of proceedings in the said Courts for the winding up of Societies under the said Acts be the officer attached to such of the Courts respectively as exercise jurisdiction under the said "Building Societies Act, 1874," and the said "Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1876," within the London Bankruptcy District, as defined by section 96 of "The Bankruptcy Act, 1883," and do appoint the said Charles John Stewart to be such officer accordingly.

And the Board of Trade do further order that as regards each of the Courts exercising jurisdiction under the said "Building Societies Act, 1874," and the said "Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1876," not being Courts within the said London Bankruptcy District, or Courts exercising bankruptcy jurisdiction, the Official Receiver of the Court to which the said Court is attached for the purposes of bankruptcy jurisdiction shall be the officer attached to the said Court for the purpose of proceedings in the said Court for the
