The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it was (among other things) enacted that Her Majesty might from time to time, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, fix the establishment to be maintained by each of the General Lighthouse Authorities on account of the services of lighthouses, buoys, and beacons, or the annual or other sums to be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund in respect of such establishments, and that no increase of any establishment or part of an establishment so fixed should be made without the consent of the Board of Trade:

And whereas Her Majesty, by Orders in Council, dated the fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and the sixteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, was pleased to fix the establishment which might be maintained by the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond (hereinafter called the Trinity House) and to fix that in respect of such said establishment the aggregate amount of the salaries which under the provisions of the said Orders in Council should, for the time being, be paid to the officers of the said establishment should be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund:

Provided as follows:—
