

lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew Bruntcliffe situate within the limits of the district parish of Saint Peter (Morley) in the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said district parish of Saint Peter (Morley) of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Townend, Morley in the said county and diocese, and of the parish of Batley in the same county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such cures respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said district parish of Saint Peter (Morley) of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Townend, Morley, and of the said parish of Batley should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew Bruntcliffe situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Walsham, Bishop of the said diocese of Wakefield, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Reverend Thomas Gateward Davies Clerk in Holy Orders the Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Batley, and as such Vicar or Incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the said district parish of Saint Peter (Morley) and also the alternate patron of the perpetual curacy of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul Townend Morley with the consent of the Reverend Henry Jackson, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said district parish of Saint Peter (Morley) and as such Vicar or Incumbent, the other alternate patron of the said perpetual curacy of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul Townend Morley aforesaid with the consent of the Right Honourable Seymour John Grey, Earl of Wilton as the alternate patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Batley, and with the consents of the Right Honourable Algernon William Fulke Baron Greville and of the Right Honourable William Frederick Baron Stratheden and Campbell, the Trustees under the will of the Right Honourable James Thomas, Earl of Cardigan, deceased, and as such Trustees the other alternate patrons of the said vicarage of the parish of Batley aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said district parish of Saint Peter (Morley) of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Townend, Morley, and the said parish of Batley, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Andrew Bruntcliffe situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew Bruntcliffe.'

"We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Andrew Bruntcliffe comprising:—

"All those several contiguous portions of the district parish of Saint Peter (Morley), of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Townend, Morley, and of the parish of Batley all in the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield which are comprised within and bounded by an imaginary line commencing at a point upon the boundary which divides the district parish of Gildersome in the said county and diocese from the district parish of Saint Peter (Morley) aforesaid, at the centre of the bridge which carries the Leeds, Bradford, and Halifax Branch Line of the Great Northern Railway over Nibshaw-lane otherwise called Nepshaw-lane and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said branch line of railway for a distance of one mile and thirty-seven chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint Peter (Morley) from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Townend Morley aforesaid) to the point where the same branch line of railway crosses the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Townend, Morley from the parish or parochial chapelry of Woodkirk otherwise called or known as West Ardsley in the county and diocese aforesaid, and extending thence first south-westward, then generally westward, and then southward, along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of one mile and thirty-nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul Townend Morley from a portion of the parish of Batley aforesaid which is now isolated from the main portion of such parish but in which the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls, and extending thence north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of fifty-three chains or thereabouts thereby following: in part the middle of the occupation road which leads from Howley Hall to the point where such occupation road joins Scotchman's-lane, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of forty-five chains or thereabouts to the point where the same lane crosses Howley Beck, upon the boundary which divides the said isolated portion of the parish of Batley from the new parish of Saint Thomas Batley in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence generally north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts thereby following the course of Howley Beck aforesaid to the boundary which divides the said isolated portion of the parish of Batley from the new parish of Saint Saviour Brownhill, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and continuing thence still generally north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of one mile and twenty-one chains or thereabouts thereby first continuing to follow the course of the said Howley Beck and then following the course of Holden Clough Beck to the point where the said last-mentioned boundary joins the boundary dividing the said isolated portion of the parish of Batley from the district parish of Gildersome aforesaid and extending thence first generally north-eastward and then north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts to the point in the middle of the high road leading from Wakefield to Bradford where such boundary meets the boundary which divides the said district parish of
