PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, made in the matter of the trusts of the sum of £200, bequeathed by the will of Louisa Thoresby, Spinster, to the Hospital for Incurables, and in the matter of the Trustee Relief Acts (1892, T., 1273), and dated the 8th August, 1892, an enquiry was directed to be made what institution is intended by "The Hospital for Incurables," in the gift under the will of Louisa Thoresby, Spinster, the testatrix. All institutions or persons claiming under the said inquiry are, on or before the 14th day of January, 1893, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of Mr. Justice North, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Friday, the 20th day of January, 1893, at half-past twelve o'clock in the afternoon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 5th day of December, 1892.

To CHARLES WILLIAMS, late of Cardiff.

APPLICATION has been made to the High Court of Justice (in England), Chancery Division, "In the matter of the trusts of the settlement executed on the marriage of Edward Genge and Grace Ann Pope; and in the matter of the Act 10th and 11th Victoria, chapter 96, intituled "An Act for better securing trust funds, and for the relief of Trustees," for payment out of a fund in Court standing to the account of the first mentioned matter; and whereas Mr. Justice Stirling has directed on such application that an enquiry be made whether Charles Williams, the husband of Elizabeth Mary Williams (formerly Worner, whose maiden name was Genge), is living or dead, and, if dead, whether he died prior or subsequent to the 21st May, 1844. The said Charles Williams (who may be entitled to part of such fund in Court) is alleged to have left England in 1863, immediately or shortly after his marriage with his said wife, as steward on board of an American vessel. The said Charles Williams, if living, or if he died after the 21st May, 1844, his legal personal representatives, are, on or before the 16th day of January, 1893, to come in and prove their claims (if any) to the fund in Court at the chambers of Mr. Justice Stirling, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, England, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of any Order for distribution thereof. Friday, the 27th day of January, 1893, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is the time fixed for hearing and adjudicating on such claims (if any).—Dated this 5th day of December, 1892.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, made in the matter of the estate of Frank Allan Ayles, deceased, and in an action Mercer (trading as Driver and Company) against Ayles, 1891, A., No. 931, the creditors of Frank Allan Ayles, late of Ringwood, in the county of Hants, Builder, who died in or about the month of January, 1892, are, on or before the 10th day of January, 1893, to send by post, prepaid, to Francis Arthur Johns, of Ringwood, in the county of Hants, the Solicitor for the defendant Ada Clara Ayles, the administratrix of the deceased, their Christian and surnames, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars of their claims, a statement of their accounts, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Every creditor holding any security is to produce the same before Mr. Justice Chitty, at his chambers, the Royal Courts of Justice, London, on the 24th day of January, 1893, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, being the time appointed for adjudication on the claims.—Dated this 8th day of December, 1892.
