Rome, January 27. The Pope was taken very ill the last week, his Indisposition beginning with a great Cold, and the breaking out of St. Anthony's Fire in one of his Legs, which put him into a Fever; But since Tuesday last, when his Leg was opened, he has been much easier, and his Fever is abated, but he continues very weak. On the 19th Instant was published here a Prohibition of all Commerce with the Kingdom of Naples, and strict Guards are kept at the Gates of this City to examine all Persons and Goods that come in, though our last advices say, that the City of Naples not only continues free from all Infection, but that at Conversano, where it first appeared, the Sickness is much decreased. The Prince de Lichensstein, the Emperor's Minister at this Court, has received Orders to return to Vienna, and is accordingly preparing for his departure. We hear from Florence, that a Marriage is concluded between the Elector Palatin and the Princess of Tuscany.

Geneva, February 2. We have advice, that about 8 or 10 days ago 14 or 1500 Men, most Irish, marched from Chambery, and having joined with 1500 French drawn from other Garisons, they posted themselves before Montmelian, with a design, as 'tis believed, to bombard it, the French having lately sent divers Boats up the River Jure laden with Bombes and Carcasses: This place is very strong, and in a condition to make a long Resistance, having in it a good Governor, and a Garison of 1200 Men. About 50 Dutch Soldiers who were taken Prisoners at the Battle of Fleury, and were afterwards forced by the French to serve among their Troops in Savoy, having found an opportunity to escape from the place where they were quartered, passed lately through this City in their return towards Germany.

Venice, February 3. The Senate have received Letters from the Captain-General Mocenigo, wherein he gives them an account, that he found both their Land and Sea Forces in a very good condition, and that he hoped to be very suddenly in a posture to undertake some considerable Enterprize. The next week are expected here 800 Italians, and 600 Germans, newly raised for the Service of this State, and besides these other Levies are making to reinforce our Army in the Levant.

Vienna, February 4. The last advices from Constantinople, (whereof we made mention in our last) say likewise, that the French, according to their usual way of telling News, had confidently published there the entire defeat of the English and Dutch both by Sea and Land by their Kings Forces, and had demanded permission to make publick Rejoycings; but that two days after Letters arrived from my Lord Pager, (Envoy Extraordinary from Their Majesties of Great-Britain at this Court) with a faithful Relation of the Transactions of the last Campagne, which were communicated to the Grand Visier and the Caimacan, who thereupon presently ordered a stop to be put to the Illuminations, and other Marks of Joy prepared by the French Ambassador, to his great Mortification. From Croatia we hear, that on the 17th of the last Month a Party of Turkish Horse appeared before Jessenowich and Summoned the Place, but were quickly dispersed by the Cannon from the Town. That about the same time another Party of Turks fell upon the Out-guards of Dubizza and killed 2 of them, but were soon driven back by the Garison; And that all the Confines from Jessenowich along the River Umma are well provided with Soldiers, and vigilantly guarded. The Emperor has sent Count Harrach to Jasprucke to present the Order of the Golden Fleace to the Young Duke of Lorraine. Tschelky demands 25000 Ducats for General Hoffler's Ransom.
