And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration.

And whereas the said Archbishop, being satisfied with the said scheme, hath certified the same and the consents aforesaid to Her Majesty in Council, by his report dated the nineteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, which said report is in the words and figures following :—

"To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We the undersigned Edward White Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council :

"That the Right Reverend John James Stewart Lord Bishop of Worcester has represented unto us (amongst other things),—

"That there is in the county of Warwick and his diocese of Worcester the parish and benefice or perpetual curacy of Wroxall the parish whereof comprises among other places a portion of land which is separated from the main part of the said parish but adjoins the parish of Rowington.

"That the said parish of Wroxall also comprises another portion of land known by the name of Shortwood lying at a considerable distance from the other parts of the said parish of Wroxall and wholly surrounded by the hamlet or township of Beausale in the parish of Hatton in the same county and diocese.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that the said portions of land may under the provisions of 'The Pluralities Act 1838,' and the Act two and three Victoria chapter forty-nine, be advantageously separated from the said parish of Wroxall and be annexed to the said parish of Rowington and hamlet of Beausale respectively for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in 'The Pluralities Act 1838,' the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alteration may best be effected and how the changes consequent upon such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithes tithe rent-charges and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested which scheme together with the consents thereto in writing of the patron and incumbents of the benefices to be affected have been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us for our consideration.

"The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop and the consents before referred to are hereunto annexed.

"And we the said Archbishop being on full consideration and enquiry satisfied with the said scheme do hereby pursuant to the said 'Pluralities Act 1838,' certify the same and such consents as aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect.

"As witness our hand this nineteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

"Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect.

Herbert M. Suft.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of January, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her
