

Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish herein-after mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with certain modifications:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-sixth day of November last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the thirteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued, as follows, viz.:-

BERKHAMPSTED, SAINT MARY.—Forthwith and entirely in Northchurch Baptist Chapel, in the parish of Berkhamsted, Saint Mary, in the county of Herts, and also in the chapel-yard within ten yards of any dwelling; and that in the rest of the chapel-yard the following Regulations should be obeyed:—

1. No body shall be buried in any vault or walled grave unless the coffin be separately entombed in an airtight manner—that is, by properly cemented stone or brickwork which shall never be disturbed.

2. No earthen grave shall be dug within one foot of any other grave.

3. No coffin shall be buried in any unwallied grave within four feet of the ordinary level of the ground unless it contains the body of a child under twelve years when it shall not be less than three feet below that level.
