Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 3, 1893.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 28, 1893.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Thursday, the 9th March next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS
TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms are requested to bring with them to the Drawing Room two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

The privilege of making presentations to The Queen at a Drawing Room is restricted to those Ladies who have themselves been previously presented to Her Majesty, and who are themselves present at the Drawing Room.

Under such circumstances a Lady has the privilege of presenting one Lady only at a Drawing Room in addition to her Daughters or Daughters-in-law.

This restriction does not apply to Ladies who, from official position or other circumstances, are specially privileged to make presentations to Her Majesty.

The Lady who proposes to present another must send in writing the name of such Lady to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Drawing Room, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the name to Her Majesty, when, if it be approved, presentation cards will be forwarded.

Printed Forms for this purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Lady to be presented be very distinctly written on the presentation cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Drawing Room, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at a Drawing Room, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

CARRINGTON,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 28, 1893.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 13th March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Gentlemen who propose to present others must send in writing the name of such Gentlemen to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, not later than two days previous to the Levee, in order that the Lord Chamberlain may submit the names to Her Majesty, when, if they are approved, Presentation Cards will be forwarded. Forms for the purpose can be obtained at the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

Gentlemen who wish to be presented officially should communicate with the heads of their Department, who will provide them with the necessary cards and instructions.

It is particularly requested that the names of the Gentlemen to be presented be very distinctly written on the Presentation Cards delivered to the Lord Chamberlain at the Levee, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

CARRINGTON,
Lord Chamberlain.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of four hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the particular district and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of All Saints, Rockwell Green, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twelve pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said benefice of All Saints, Rockwell Green, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of four hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice, one other yearly sum of twelve pounds, or such part thereof, as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; such lastly-mentioned yearly payment to commence as from the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the rectory of Byers Green, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, one capital sum of fifty pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new water supply for the parsonage house belonging to the said rectory.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-third day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

Fiji Government Four-and-a-Half per Cent. Debenture Loan, issued under the authority of Ordinance No. 13 of 1880.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in accordance with the conditions upon which the Loan was raised, the principal of debentures numbered from 211 to 234, inclusive, of £100 each, amounting to £2,400, will be repaid on the 15th of September, 1893, at the office of the Crown Agents for the Colonies, Downing-street, London, S.W. The debentures will cease to bear interest from the 15th September, 1893, and the nominal value of all coupons for undue interest not delivered up with the debentures will be deducted from the principal at the time of payment.

Offices of the Crown Agents for the Colonies,
Downing Street, London, March 2, 1893.

In Parliament.—Session 1893.

Thames Watermen and Lightermen.

(To Amend the Constitution of the Watermen's Company; Qualification, Retirement, Election, and Rotation of the Master, Wardens, and Assistants; Qualification of Electors and Mode of Voting; Examinations, Certificates, and Licences; Rules, Regulations, and Bye-laws; Tolls and Dues; Amendment of Acts; Costs of Act, &c.)

Pursuant to leave granted by Resolutions of the Standing Orders Committee, reporting on the 28th day of February, 1893, to the effect that the Standing Orders ought to be dispensed with, and that the parties be permitted to proceed with the above Bill, provided that fresh Notices be published.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is the intention of such parties to proceed with their said Bill, to effect the objects and purposes following, or some of them: (that is to say):—

1. To amend the constitution of the Company called the Master, Wardens, Assistants, and Commonalty of Watermen, Wherrymen, and Lightermen of the River Thames (hereinafter referred to as the "Watermen's Company"), and to provide for the qualification, retirement, election, and rotation of the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Watermen's Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Court"), and for the filling up of vacancies, and also to provide, if deemed expedient, for the remuneration of members of the Court, and for the payment of their expenses, and, if deemed expedient, to limit or reduce the number of members of the Court.

2. To define or prescribe the qualification of the electors and the right of persons to vote and the mode of voting at the election of any member or members of the Court and at general meetings of the Watermen's Company, and generally to provide for the administration of the affairs of the Watermen's Company, and the audit and publication of their accounts.

3. To make provision for the administration of its affairs by the Court, and rules, bye-laws, or regulations for the guidance of members and the conduct of the business of the Court, and particularly with reference to the examination of and granting licences to persons desirous of working as watermen and lightermen on the River Thames, and, if deemed expedient, provision will be made for the appointment and payment of competent persons to examine and grant certificates and licences to persons possessing the necessary qualifications who may be desirous of working as watermen and lightermen on the River Thames, and to make rules and bye-laws for the conduct of such examinations and the granting of certificates and licences.

4. To provide for certain members of the Court being from time to time appointed or elected members of the Thames Conservancy Board.

5. To repeal, alter, or enlarge all or any of the powers and provisions of the following Acts relating to the Watermen's Company, viz.:— 8 and 9 Vic., cap. 78, and the Watermen's and Lightermen's Amendment Act, 1859, and any other Acts, charters, grants, bye-laws, rules, and regulations relating to the Watermen's Company, and to repeal or alter any tolls, rates, or duties leviable by the said Company, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of all or any of such tolls, rates, or duties, and to provide for the cost of the Bill being paid out of the funds of the Watermen's Company.

6. And notice is hereby further given, that printed copies of the Bill were deposited at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons before the 21st day of December, 1891.

Dated this 3rd day of March, 1893.

CHARLES OLIVER POOK, Greenwich, S.E., and 29 and 30, King-street, Cheapside, E.C., Solicitor and Parliamentary Agent to the Amalgamated Society of Watermen and Lightermen of the River Thames.

THE RAILWAY AND CANAL TRAFFIC ACT, 1888.

Proposed Revision of Classification and Rates and Charges for Merchandise Traffic.

Easingwold Railway Company.

NOTICE is hereby given that, pursuant to the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888, this Company has submitted to the Board of Trade a proposed revised classification of merchandise traffic, and revised schedule of maximum rates and charges applicable thereto, proposed to be charged by this Company. And that in such proposed classification and schedule there are stated the nature and amounts of all terminal charges proposed to be charged in respect of each class of traffic, and the circumstances under which the terminal charges are proposed to be made.

Printed copies of the proposed classification and schedule may be obtained, at the price of one shilling, at the office of the Company, Spring-street, Easingwold, or from any stationmaster of the Company.

Anyone wishing to raise any objection to the proposed classification and schedule may forward, by post, a notice of objection to the Board of Trade, marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it, "Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1888."

Notices of objection must be transmitted to the Board of Trade so as to reach them on or before the expiration of eight weeks from the 28th day of February, 1893.

Every objector must transmit to the Secretary of the Company, at its principal office, Spring-street, Easingwold, Yorkshire, a copy of the notice of objection, otherwise the objection will be liable to be dismissed without being heard.

Due notice will be given of the time appointed by the Board of Trade for hearing and disposing of notices of objection.

EDW. BULLER HICKS, Secretary.

Dated this 28th day of February, 1893.

Thames Conservancy.

BYE-LAWS for the Protection, Preservation, and Regulation of the Fisheries in the River Thames, from Cricklade, in the county of Wilts, to Yantlet, in the county of Kent.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Conservators of the River Thames, in exercise of the powers and authority vested in them by the Thames Conservancy Acts, 1857 and 1864, "The Thames Navigation Act, 1866," "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1867," "The Thames Navigation Act, 1870," "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1878," "The Thames Act, 1883," and "The Thames Preservation Act, 1885," and of every other authority them hereunto in anywise enabling, propose to order and direct as follows, that is to say:—

1. These Bye-laws may be cited as "The Thames Fishery Bye-laws, 1893."

2. These Bye-laws shall come into operation the day after the same are allowed by Her Majesty in Council.

3. Except when the application of any Bye-law or Bye-laws is expressly limited to any particular part or parts of the river, or to any particular or specified class of fish or mode of fishing, these Bye-laws shall extend and apply to the Rivers Thames and Isis, hereinafter called "the River Thames" as herein defined, and to all creeks, inlets, and bends between Teddington Lock in the county of Middlesex, and Yantlet Creek in the county of Kent, so far as the tide flows and reflows therein at ordinary tides, and to every class of fish and every mode of fishing.

MODES AND INSTRUMENTS OF FISHING.

UPPER RIVER.

The following Bye-laws numbered 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11 shall only apply to so much of the River Thames as is situate above London Bridge.

4. The following instruments, nets, and apparatus shall be the only instruments, nets, and apparatus that may lawfully be used for taking fish:—

1. Rod and line.
2. A flew or stream net.
3. A seine or draft net.
4. A single blay net.
5. A smelt net.
6. A flounder net.
7. A minnow net.
8. A hand or well net.
9. A landing net.
10. A casting or bait net.
11. Grig wheels.

And such nets and apparatus shall only be used in the places at the times and in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

5. No rod and line shall be used except when fished with either a natural or artificial bait in a proper manner, and no person shall fish with more than two rods and lines at the same time.

6. No person shall allow any rod and line or line to which any bait or hook, natural or artificial, is attached to be drawn or trailed from any vessel on the River Thames.

7. No person shall fish for pike with any device or tackle that does not admit of the pike taken therewith being returned to the water without any serious injury.

8. No flew or stream net shall be used of a greater length than sixteen fathoms, measured along the head-rope, nor with a mesh of less than three inches from knot to knot, the measurements to be made when the net is wet.

No seine or draft net shall be used of a greater length than sixteen fathoms, measured along the head-rope, nor with a mesh less than two and a half inches from knot to knot, the measurements in each case to be made when the net is wet.

No blay net shall be used of a greater length than thirteen fathoms, measured along the head-rope, nor with a mesh less than two inches from knot to knot, the measurements in each case to be made when wet.

No smelt net shall be used of a greater length than sixteen fathoms, measured along the head-rope, nor with a mesh other than the following:— For five fathoms, measured along the head-rope from each end thereof, with a mesh not less than one and a quarter inches, measured round the square from knot to knot, and for the remaining six fathoms measured along the head-rope, which shall join the two portions of five fathoms, with a mesh not less than one inch, measured round the square, the said measurements to be made in all cases when the net is wet.

No flounder net shall be used of a greater length than sixteen fathoms, measured along the head-rope, or of a greater depth than nine feet, or with a mesh of less than three inches, measured round the square, the said measurements to be made in all cases when the net is wet.

No minnow net shall be used with a greater diameter than three feet in any part of the net.

No landing net shall be used with a greater diameter than two feet and a greater length than three feet from the ring and the end of the net, nor with a mesh of less than one inch from knot to knot, such measurements to be made when the net is wet.

No casting or bait net shall be used exceeding twenty feet in circumference nor with a mesh of less than one-half inch from knot to knot, nor with a sack or purse of more than six inches in depth when fully extended, the measurements in each case to be made when the net is wet.

9. The following nets and no other may be used by all persons for all fish:—

A minnow net, a landing net, and a hand or well net.

The following nets may not be used except in that part of the River Thames as lies between Isleworth Church Ferry and London Bridge, and except by the persons who used such nets during the year 1892. A list of such persons, with their full names and addresses, is contained in the schedule hereto.

A flew or stream net, a seine or draft net, a blay net, a smelt net, and a flounder net.

10. The following nets shall only be used by the following persons, and in the specified way:—

A landing net by a person angling or by an assistant to a person angling, and as auxiliary to angling with a rod and line, to land fish hooked on a line by the person fishing.

A minnow net by a person angling or about to angle, or his servant or agent, for the purpose of providing minnows for bait, to be used for angling in the River Thames.

A casting or bait net may only be used by assistant river keepers in obtaining bait to be used by persons for angling in the River Thames.

NOTE.—The Conservators desire it to be known that they will be willing to appoint from time to time as assistant river keepers such professional fishermen in each district as may be properly recommended to them for the appointment, and are in their opinion fitted for the office.

11. No night hook, night line, nor fixed hook or line shall be used in the River Thames above London Bridge.

MODES AND INSTRUMENTS OF FISHING. LOWER RIVER.

The following Bye-laws, numbered 12, 13, and 14, shall only apply to so much of the River Thames as is situate below London Bridge.

12. The following nets, implements, and apparatus shall be the only implements, nets, and apparatus that may be lawfully used for taking fish:—

1. Rod and line.
2. Hand lines fished with bait.
3. Trim-tram nets.
4. Trawl nets.
5. Flounder nets.
6. Stow-boat nets until the 1st day of July, 1895.

And such nets and apparatus shall only be used in the places, at the times, and in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

13. No trim-tram net shall be used with a weighted beam of a greater length than twenty-one feet or with a mouth of a greater total circumference than sixty feet measuring in each of the sides. The netting of any such net shall not be of a greater length than thirty feet from the beam to the extreme end of the cod of the net and shall not be less than three-quarters of an inch from knot to knot, the measurements to be made when the net is wet.

14. No trawl net shall be used with a beam of greater length than thirty feet, and the netting of such net shall not be of a greater length than seventy-five feet from the beam, nor with a mesh of less than three-quarters of an inch from knot to knot, the measurements to be made when the net is wet.

General.

15. No net in any part of the River Thames shall be fixed or attached to the soil or made stationary in any way, and a net held by any person or persons in a boat or boats that is or are moored or anchored shall be deemed to be a fixed net for the purposes of this Bye-law.

16. No person shall put down in any part of the River Thames at the mouth of any brook, creek, or river communicating with the River Thames, or running into the said river, or at any mill, sluice, race, or branch of the said river, any net or device whatever to stop, catch, or hinder any fish, spawn, or fry of fish from coming into or going out of the River Thames.

17. No spear, gaff, strokehaul, hook, or other instrument of a like nature, or any other device used in the manner such instruments are usually employed shall be used in any part of the River Thames. Provided that this Bye-law shall not apply to any person using a gaff as auxiliary to angling for pike with a rod and line.

18. No person shall use any rod and line, hook, wire, snare, or other device, either alone or in connection with a rod and line, or in any other way, so as to take fish by means of foul hooking, snatching, or snaring in any part of the River Thames.

19. No wheel or basket for taking eels or other fish shall be used in the River Thames, except grig wheels, not laid or placed near any dam or weir, and having a diameter not exceeding six inches, and such wheels shall only be used in such part of the River Thames as lies below the City Stone, Staines.

Times in which the taking of Fish is prohibited.

20. No salmon, salmon trout, trout, or char may be fished for, taken, or attempted to be taken in the River Thames between the 11th day of September and the 31st day of March following, both inclusive.

21. No smelts may be fished for, taken, or attempted to be taken between the 25th day of March and the 27th day of July following, both inclusive.

22. No lamperns may be fished for, taken, or attempted to be taken between the 1st day of April and the 24th day of August following, both inclusive.

23. In that part of the River Thames as is situate above London Bridge, no person shall fish with or use any rod and line between the 15th day of March and the 15th day of June following both inclusive, except a rod and line for taking Trout, and fished with an artificial fly or with a spinning or live bait.

24. No fish found in the part of the River Thames above London Bridge may be taken between the 15th day of March and the 15th day of June following, both inclusive, except Trout and Roach, Dace, Gudgeon, Bleak, and Minnows, taken as herein provided as bait for Trout.

25. No person shall fish for, take, or attempt to take by any means whatever in that part of the River Thames as lies above the City Stone at Staines, nor from any vessel in that part of the River Thames as lies between the City Stone and London Bridge, any fish between the expiration of the first hour after sunset and the last hour before sunrise.

Places in which the taking of Fish is prohibited.

26. The places hereinafter-mentioned are places staked and marked out by the Conservators for the preservation and incubation of the fish in the River Thames, that is to say:—

Richmond.—From Richmond Bridge upwards, a distance of about seven hundred yards in length or thereabouts; to the building known as Buccleuch House.

Twickenham.—From the upper end of the Lawn at Pope's Villa to the island at Cross Deep, a distance of 400 yards in length or thereabouts.

Kingston.—From Broom Hall, Teddington, through the Backwater (the Crowlock) up to the South-Western Railway Bridge at Kingston, a distance of 1,960 yards or thereabouts.

Thames Ditton.—From Long Ditton Ferry for 512 yards or thereabouts westwards.

Hampton.—From Molesey Lock to the upper end of the Lawn at Garrick Villa, Hampton, a distance of 1,514 yards or thereabouts.

Sunbury.—From the Magpie Inn for 683 yards or thereabouts to the westward to Sunbury Weir.

Walton.—Walton Sale, a length of 250 yards.

Shepperton.—The Upper Deep, a distance of 240 yards.

Shepperton.—The Lower Deep, a distance of 200 yards.

Weybridge.—From Shepperton Lock along the course of the river to the weir, a distance of about 830 yards or thereabouts.

Chertsey.—From a point eighty yards below the bridge to the weir, a distance of 445 yards or thereabouts.

Penton Hook.—From the weir round the island and up to the lock, at Penton Hook, being a distance of 1,150 yards or thereabouts.

Staines.—From a point below the Road Bridge,

Staines, to the City Stone, a distance of 210 yards or thereabouts.

27. In any of the abovementioned places no person shall do, or aid, or assist in doing, any of the following things:—

(a.) Take up, remove, injure, or destroy any stake, burr, boat, punt, or any other thing placed for the purpose of impeding fishing, or the protection of fish.

(b.) Disturb the said preserves or the fish therein, or any spawning bed or place to which fish resort before, during, or after spawning in any of the said preserves.

(c.) Fish for, take, or attempt to take, fish in any of the said preserves, by any mode whatsoever, except angling with a rod and line. Provided that any duly registered fisherman may use in such preserves grig wheels for taking eels during the time the same may be lawfully used.

Sizes of Fish.

28. No fish of the species hereinafter mentioned shall be taken in or out of the River Thames, or having been taken shall be had in possession or exposed for sale on the River Thames, or on the shore thereof, or on any lands adjoining or near to the river, of less than the sizes and dimensions hereinafter respectively mentioned (that is to say):—

Pike or jack, extreme length eighteen inches.

Perch, extreme length eight inches.

Chub, extreme length ten inches.

Roach, extreme length seven inches.

Dace, extreme length six inches.

Barbel, extreme length sixteen inches.

Trout, extreme length sixteen inches.

Grayling, extreme length twelve inches.

Bream, extreme length ten inches.

Carp, extreme length ten inches.

Tench, extreme length eight inches.

Rudd, extreme length six inches.

Gudgeon, extreme length four inches.

Flounders, extreme length seven inches.

Smelts, extreme length six inches.

Lamperns, extreme length seven inches.

Soles or slips, extreme length ten inches.

Whiting, extreme length seven inches.

Plaice or dab, extreme length ten inches.

Shrimps to be sifted through a sieve of three-eighths of an inch between the wires, all which wires shall be placed either vertically or horizontally, and no shrimp that will pass through such sieve to be kept or retained.

But this Bye-law shall not apply—

(a.) To any person who takes any undersized fish accidentally, and at once returns such fish alive to the water without injury.

(b.) To any roach, dace, gudgeon, bleak, or minnows taken for use as bait, provided that no person shall be entitled to have in his possession, or under his control, more than fifty of such fish for use as bait at any one time, or to take by himself, his servants, or agents, more than fifty of such fish on any day.

29. Any person who shall have in his possession, on, near, or adjoining the River Thames, any fish of less dimensions than those specified in the last preceding Bye-law, shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence against such Bye-law, unless he prove, to the satisfaction of the Court before which he is tried, that he was lawfully in possession of such fish.

General.

30. Any person following the business of a fisherman on the River Thames, or letting for hire for fishing any boat, punt, or other vessel to be used on the River Thames, shall be subject to the following regulations:—

(a.) His name and place of abode shall be duly registered in a book kept for that purpose by the Secretary to the Conservators of the River Thames, at their London office for the time being, which office is now situate at No. 41, Trinity-square, Tower Hill.

(b.) On the registration of his name he shall pay a fee of one shilling in respect of each boat, punt, or other vessel.

(c.) The Secretary shall give to every such person on his registration a certificate thereof, such certificate shall contain the number of every such boat, punt, or vessel.

(d.) Such person shall cause to be painted and keep painted and legible, in characters not less than two inches long and half an inch broad, on the starboard bow, and on the port quarter of every such boat, punt, or vessel, such number, together with his name and place of abode. Any person neglecting to have such number, name, and address painted on each such boat, punt, or vessel, and to keep the same so painted, or shall permit the same to be defaced or removed, shall be guilty of an offence against this Bye-law, and shall, in addition to any other penalty, on conviction for such offence forfeit his certificate of registration.

NOTE.—The Conservators desire it to be known that this Bye-law is of universal application throughout the river.

31. No person shall follow the business of a fisherman, nor shall let or use any boat, punt, or vessel for hire for fishing on that part of the River Thames as is situate above London Bridge, without being registered in respect thereof, and without having the same marked with the registered number, and his name and place of abode, as provided by the last preceding Bye-law.

32. Nothing in these Bye-laws shall prevent any person, provided he has the previous consent in writing of the Conservators under their common seal, from obtaining fish for the purpose of artificial propagation and other scientific purposes from any part of the River Thames in which such person has a right to take fish, or from having in his possession salmon roe or trout roe for any of these purposes, or from taking or attempting to take salmon or trout when spawning, or near the spawning beds.

33. Nothing in these Bye-laws, except the provisions relative to the fence season and to the sizes of fish, shall take away or abridge the right of the owner or occupier of a private fishery or any person having authority in writing from any such owner or occupier to do within the limits of such private fishery any things which can be legally done irrespective of these Bye-laws, and with the special license of the Conservators in writing under their common seal, but not otherwise, to take fish in such private fishery by means of a net commonly called a hoop net, having a mesh of not less than two inches from knot to knot when wet, or eight inches all round, and not being more than six yards long, or by means of a net commonly called a drag net and having a mesh of not less than two inches from knot to knot when wet, or eight inches all round.

34. If any net, engine, apparatus, or device, the use of which is prohibited by these Bye-laws, or if any fish during the time at which the capture of the same is prohibited, or of a size of less than that permitted to be taken by these Bye-laws, is found in the possession or under the control of any person on the River Thames, or on the shore thereof, or on any lands adjoining to or near the River Thames, such person shall be deemed guilty of an offence against these Bye-laws, unless he prove to the satisfaction of the Court before which he is tried that the same was legally in his possession or under his control. And if any such net, engine, apparatus, device, or fish has been seized under the provisions of the Thames Acts, or any of them, or of these Bye-laws, the Court may either before or after such trial order the same to be destroyed, but without prejudice to the infliction of a penalty or any other remedy against the person charged, or to the rights of such person if such charge shall be dismissed.

35. Any person acting in contravention of the foregoing Bye-laws, or any of them, shall for every such act be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and may on the direction of the Court forfeit any net, engine, device, apparatus, or fish found in his possession or control. Every such penalty shall be recovered in manner prescribed by the Summary Jurisdiction Act, and shall be applied in manner directed by the Thames Acts, 1857 to 1885.

36. In these Bye-laws unless there is something inconsistent or repugnant in the context the words and expressions hereinafter mentioned shall have the following meanings, that is to say:—

Person.—Shall mean any number of persons or any body of persons, corporate, or unincorporate.

Court.—Shall mean any Court of Summary Jurisdiction whether consisting of two or more Justices or of a Stipendiary Magistrate.

Fishing.—Includes oyster and shell fishing.

Fish.—Includes oysters, shrimps, crabs, lobsters, crayfish, and shell fish, and the spat, spawn, brood, ova, or fry of oysters, shrimps, crabs, lobsters, crayfish, or fish.

Vessel.—Means and includes any ship, lighter, keel, barge, boat, punt, wherry, raft, or craft, or any other kind of vessel navigated by any form of motive power.

Fisherman.—Means any person registered as a fisherman, or the owner of a boat or vessel used for fishing or let for hire for fishing on the River Thames.

River Thames.—Shall mean and include (1) the Rivers Thames and Isis from Cricklade in the county of Wilts, to Yantlet in the county of Kent. (2) All backwaters, creeks, side channels, bays, and inlets connected with or forming part of the said rivers, or either of them, through or in which or any part of which water flows from and returns to the said rivers, or either of them, within the limits aforesaid. (3) All creeks, inlets, channels, or bends between Teddington Lock, in the county of Middlesex, and Yantlet Creek, in the county of Kent, so far as the tide flows and réflows therein at ordinary tides.

37. All Rules and Bye-laws now in force for the protection, preservation, and regulation of the fisheries in the River Thames are repealed from the day when these Bye-laws come into operation.

T. J. PITTAR.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice North.

In the Matter of the Berne Land Company Limited and Reduced; and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1867; and of the Companies Act, 1877.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, made by the Honourable Mr. Justice North, on the 4th day of February, 1893, that the cancellation and reduction of the capital of the abovenamed Company resolved on and effected by the special resolution passed and confirmed at Extraordinary General Meetings of the Company, held respectively on the 26th day of February and 15th March, 1892, be confirmed, in conformity with the provisions of the Companies Act, 1867, and the Companies Act, 1877, together with the following Minute, approved by the Court, namely:—"The capital of the Berne Land Company Limited is from henceforth £95,000, divided into 5,000 shares of £19 each, on which the sum of £19 has been and is to be deemed paid up, instead of the reduced capital of £97,500, divided into 5,000 shares of £19 10s. each, with £19 10s. per share paid up,"—and that the said Order was duly registered with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies on the 23rd day of February, 1893.

CAMPBELL, REEVES, and HOOPER, 17, Warwick-street, Regent-street, London, W., Solicitors.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890, and in the Matter of Sheppard's Corn Malting Company Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition for the winding up of the abovenamed Company by the High Court of Justice, was, on the 17th day of February, 1893, presented to the said Court by Paul Krell, of Walsingham House, Piccadilly, in the county of Middlesex, a contributory of the said Company; and that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Court sitting at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, on the 11th day of March, 1893; and any creditor or contributory of the said Company desirous to support or oppose the making of an Order on the said petition, may appear at the time of hearing by himself, or his Counsel, for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or contributory of the said Company requiring the same by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charge for the same.

MILNE and MILNE, 14, Clement's-inn, Strand, London, Petitioner's Solicitors.

NOTE.—Any person who intends to appear on the hearing of the said petition must serve on or send by post to the abovenamed, notice in writing of his intention so to do. The notice must state the name and address of the person, or, if a firm, the name and address of the firm, and must be signed by the person or firm, or his or their Solicitor (if any), and must be served, or, if posted, must be sent by post in sufficient time to reach the abovenamed not later than six o'clock in the afternoon of the 10th day of March, 1893.

In the High Court of Justice.—Companies (Winding up).

Mr. Justice Vaughan Williams.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890, and in the Matter of the Portsmouth and Southsea Army and Navy Stores Limited.

BY an Order made by his Lordship Mr. Justice Vaughan Williams, in the above matter, dated the 20th day of February, 1893, on the petition of the abovenamed Company and Ernest Layton Bennett, of 66 and 67, Cornhill, in the city of London, Chartered Accountant, and Samuel Moore, of Clarendon-buildings, Southsea, in the county of Hants, a Captain (retired) in Her Majesty's Army, the voluntary Liquidators of the abovementioned Company, it was ordered that the voluntary winding up of the said Portsmouth and Southsea Army and Navy Stores Limited be continued, but subject to the supervision of the Court, and any of the proceedings under the said voluntary winding up may be adopted as the Court should think fit, and that the creditors, contributories, and Liquidators of the said Company, and all other persons interested, are to be at liberty to apply as there may be occasion.—Dated this 28th day of February, 1893.

E. SHIRLEY PARKER, 12, Bishopsgate-street Within, London, E.C., Solicitor for the Petitioners.
