

(a.) The names of the owners, lessees, and occupiers of the lands described in the said Provisional Award, so far as they can be ascertained;

(b.) The apportioned amounts in capital sums and by way of annual charge which in the opinion of the Council ought to be charged upon such lands respectively;

It further provides that the amount to be proposed in the Provisional Award as the capital sum to be charged on any lands shall be one-half of the amount which in the opinion of the Council will be the enhanced value or benefit derived or to be derived by the said lands from the improvements, and the amount to be proposed in the Provisional Award as the annual charge upon the lands charged shall be an annual sum equal to three per centum per annum on the amount of the capital charge in respect of the same lands.

The clause also contains various provisions as to the method in which objections may be made to the Award; for referring the award to an Arbitrator to be appointed by the Local Government Board, who shall have power to deal with all objections to the Award, and to amend the resolution of the Council and the Award.

Other parts of the same clause contain provisions as to the recovery of the amount to be charged, which may be registered as a land charge under "The Lands Charges Registration and Searches Act, 1888."

Duplicate plans and sections describing the lines, situation, and levels of the proposed works, and plans showing the lands, houses, and other property in or through which the works will be made, or which may be taken under the powers of the Bill, together with a book of reference to such plans, were, in November last, deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of London, at his office at the Sessions House, Clerkenwell Green, and at the same time a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference were deposited as follows, viz. :—
