

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of May, 1893.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
Lord President.
Marquess of Ripon.
Mr. Secretary Asquith.

WHEREAS by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, Her Majesty the Queen has jurisdiction within the dominions of the Sultan of Zanzibar.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Any act which if done in British India would be an offence against the law for the time being in force in British India relating to trade-marks, merchandise-marks, copyright, designs, or inventions, shall, if done in Zanzibar by a person subject to the Orders in Council relating to Zanzibar, be an offence, whether such act is done in relation to any property or right of a British subject, or of a foreigner or native, or otherwise; and any person guilty of such offence shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two months, or with a fine which may extend to 1,000 rupees, or with both.

2. Any Act of the Governor-General of India in Council, or of the Governor of Bombay in Council, amending or substituted for any of the Acts of those Legislatures respectively which are made applicable to Zanzibar by or under the provisions of Article 8 of "The Zanzibar Order in Council, 1884," or shall hereafter be made so applicable, shall apply to Zanzibar without any order of the Secretary of State in that behalf, subject, however, to the provisions made in that Article for facilitating the application of enactments.

3. This Order shall be read and construed as part of "The Zanzibar Order in Council, 1884," and may be cited as "The Zanzibar (Trade-marks, &c.) Order in Council, 1893."

4.—(a.) This Order shall come into operation at the expiration of one month after it is first exhibited in the public office of the Consulate at Zanzibar: provided that any Act of the Imperial Parliament, extending to India, or any Act of the Governor-General in Council which is passed after the commencement of this Order, and applies to Zanzibar by virtue of this Order, shall not take effect until the expiration of one month after such Act has been exhibited in like manner.

(b.) The Consul-General shall cause a copy of this Order and of every such Act to be exhibited, and for the said period kept exhibited, in the public office of the Consulate accordingly.

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Rosebery, K.G., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of May, 1893.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
Lord President.
Marquess of Ripon.
Mr. Secretary Asquith.

WHEREAS by the provisions of "The Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883," as amended by "The Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks (Amendment) Act, 1885," it is, amongst other things, provided:—

That if Her Majesty is pleased to make any arrangement with the Government or Governments of any Foreign State or States for mutual protection of inventions, designs, and trade marks, or any of them, then any person who has applied for protection for any invention, design, or trade mark in any such State shall, subject to the conditions further provided and set forth in the said Act, be entitled to a patent for his invention, or to registration of his design or trade mark (as the case may be) under the said Act in priority to other applicants, and such patent or registration shall have the same date as the date of the application in such Foreign State:

And whereas it has pleased Her Majesty to make an arrangement with His Excellency the President of Ecuador by and in virtue of a Convention entered into between Her Majesty and that State, dated the twenty-sixth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and duly ratified on the third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, as regards the rights to which subjects of each of the contracting parties shall be entitled in the dominions and possessions of the other in regard to designs and trade marks:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said first-mentioned Act, doth declare, and it is hereby declared, that the provisions of the said Acts hereinbefore specified shall apply to the following country, viz.:—

Ecuador.

And it is further ordered and declared that this Order shall take effect, so far as regards designs and trade marks, at the expiration of four months from the day and date first above written.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of May, 1893.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
Lord President.
Marquess of Ripon.
Mr. Secretary Asquith.

WHEREAS by "The Seal Fishery (Behring's Sea) Act, 1891," it is enacted that Her Majesty the Queen may by Order in Council prohibit the catching of seals by British ships in Behring's Sea, or such part thereof as is defined by the said Order, during the period limited by the Order:

And whereas the expression "Behring's Sea" in the said Act means the seas known as Behring's Sea within the limits described in an Order under the said Act.

And whereas an Order in Council was issued on the twenty-third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, prohibiting the catching of seals by British ships in Behring's Sea, as therein defined, until the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

And whereas a further Order in Council was issued on the ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, prohibiting the catching of seals by British ships in Behring's Sea, as therein defined, until the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

Now therefore Her Majesty in virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is
