WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Amesbury, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: To have and to hold the said pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

Schedule.

All those three pieces or parcels of land, comprising respectively one rood and thirty perches, ten perches, and five perches, or thereabouts, situate in the parish of Amesbury, in the county of Wilts, being as to the first piece or parcel of land part of the old rectory or parsonage-garden, and as to the second and third pieces or parcels of land certain property which became vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners by virtue of a deed dated the sixteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty. All which said pieces or parcels of land are bounded on the north and north-west by lands belonging to Sir Edward Antrobus, Bart., on the east and north-east by land conveyed by Sir Edward Antrobus to the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, and now belonging to the vicarage of Amesbury, on the west and south-west by the site of the old parsonage-house and part of the garden thereto, now added to the burial-ground of the said parish of Amesbury, and on the south-east by the high-road called Church-street, in Amesbury, and which said pieces or parcels of land are more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and are thereon coloured respectively green and blue.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Appledore, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of one hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the rectory of Aston, in the county of Hereford, and in the diocese of Hereford, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said rectory of Aston, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of improving the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said rectory, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to
