

in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Zanzibar (Jurisdiction) Order in Council, 1893," and shall be construed as one with "The Zanzibar Order in Council, 1884," and "The Zanzibar Order in Council, 1888" (herein respectively referred to as the Order of 1884 and the Order of 1888).

2.—(1.) Natives of any Protectorate of Her Majesty which is outside Zanzibar shall when within Zanzibar be deemed to be British-protected persons within the meaning of the Orders in Council relating to Zanzibar.

(2.) Such of the provisions of those Orders as refer to British subjects shall extend also to Zanzibar subjects, but in so far only as by Treaty, Convention, grant, usage, or other lawful means Her Majesty has jurisdiction in Zanzibar in relation to Zanzibar subjects.

3. Article eight of the Order of 1884 is hereby amended, and from and after the commencement of this Order, chapter thirty-three of the Act therein referred to as the Code of Criminal Procedure (Act X of 1882), which relates to criminal proceedings against Europeans and Americans, shall not be applicable to Zanzibar.

4. The Order of 1884, and the Orders amending the same, shall be read and construed as if the expression "Consular Judge" had been substituted for "judicial assistant" wherever that expression occurs—provided that if the Consular Officer heretofore acting as judicial assistant is appointed to be Consular Judge, all past acts of that officer as judicial assistant shall have the same validity as if on the commencement of the Order of 1884 he had been appointed to be Consular Judge.

5.—(1.) The Secretary of State may appoint one of Her Majesty's Consular Officers in and for Zanzibar to be Assistant Consular Judge, and the Consul-General may in case of emergency appoint one of such officers to act temporarily as and for such Assistant Consular Judge.

(2.) Subject to the provisions of this Order and to any directions of the Secretary of State, the Assistant Consular Judge shall have and exercise all the same powers and jurisdiction which under this Order, and the Order of 1884, can be exercised by the Consular Judge.

6. So much of Article nine of the Order of 1884 as relates to the judicial assistant is hereby repealed, and in the application of the Code of Criminal Procedure and other enactments in that Article referred to, the Assistant Consular Judge shall be deemed to be the Magistrate of the district, and the Consular Judge shall be deemed to be a Joint or Additional Sessions Judge.

7. The powers conferred upon the Consul-General by Article two of the Order of 1888 shall extend, and be deemed to have extended, to regulations for enforcing the observance of any Treaty, Convention, or International Agreement to which Her Majesty is, or may hereafter be, a party, whether the Sultan of Zanzibar is or is not a party thereto.

8. A copy of this Order shall forthwith be affixed and exhibited in the public office of the Consulate at Zanzibar, and the day on which it is so exhibited is herein referred to as the commencement of this Order, provided that any appointment authorized by this Order may be made at any time after its passing.

9. Save as by this Order provided, expressions used in this Order and in the Order of 1884 have the same meaning as in that Order.

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Rosebery, K.G., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of July, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Steward.

Marquess of Ripon.

Sir Edmund Monson.

WHEREAS by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, Her Majesty the Queen has jurisdiction in the parts of Africa mentioned in "The Africa Order in Council, 1889":

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise, in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Africa Order in Council, 1893," and shall be construed as one with "The Africa Order in Council, 1889" (herein referred to as the principal Order).

2. Natives of any Protectorate of Her Majesty which is outside any local jurisdiction constituted under the principal Order shall, when within that local jurisdiction, be deemed to be British-protected persons within the meaning of that Order.

3. The expression "Treaty," which is defined in Article three of the principal Order, shall be deemed to extend to any Treaty, Convention, or International Agreement to which Her Majesty is or may hereafter be a party, whether any State, Government, King, Chief, people, or tribe having power or authority in any local jurisdiction constituted under the principal Order is or is not a party thereto. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of July, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Andrew Wilmcote in the county of Warwick and in the diocese of Worcester the patronage of which said benefice and vicarage belongs to the Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester for the time being in right of his See, for the patronage of
