

ARTICLE 4.—Any expenses incurred by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs in watching articles delivered overside or landed for the purpose of disinfection or destruction under this Order shall be defrayed by the person having control over the same.

ARTICLE 5.—If any such bedding or clothing so delivered overside or landed for the purpose of disinfection shall not, within a period of forty-eight hours after being so delivered or landed, be disinfected and certified as aforesaid, such bedding or clothing shall, within twenty-four hours after the expiration of such period, be destroyed by the person having control over the same, with such precautions as may be directed by the Medical Officer of Health of the Sanitary Authority within whose jurisdiction or district the same may be found.

ARTICLE 6.—Any such bedding or clothing so delivered overside or landed for the purpose of destruction shall, within twenty-four hours after being so delivered or landed, be destroyed by the person having control over the same, with such precautions as may be directed by the Medical Officer of Health of such Sanitary Authority as aforesaid.

ARTICLE 7.—If the person having control over any bedding or clothing so delivered overside or landed for the purpose of disinfection or destruction shall make default in complying with the requirements of Article 5 or Article 6 of this Order, such bedding or clothing shall be forthwith destroyed, at the cost of such person, by such Sanitary Authority as aforesaid, or by or under the direction of the Medical Officer of Health of such Sanitary Authority acting on their behalf.

ARTICLE 8.—All masters of ships and other persons having control over any bedding or clothing prohibited under this Order from being delivered overside or landed as aforesaid are required to obey these regulations.

ARTICLE 9.—All Officers of Customs are empowered to prevent the delivery overside or landing of bedding or clothing in contravention of this Order.

ARTICLE 10.—It shall be the duty of the Sanitary Authority to take proceedings against masters of ships or other persons having control over any such bedding or clothing who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to obey or carry out, or shall obstruct the execution of any of these regulations.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this fifth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

Hugh Owen, Secretary.

Henry H. Fowler,
President.

NOTICE.—The Public Health Act, 1875, provides, by Section 130, that any person wilfully neglecting, or refusing to obey or carry out, or obstructing the execution of any regulation made under that Section, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Civil Service Commission, August 8, 1893.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS (Supplementary to the General Regulations issued 8th April, 1872, and amended by subsequent notices in the London Gazette) respecting Open Competitive Examinations for the Situation of Second Class Assistant in the Royal Observatory at the Cape of Good Hope.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration for future Examinations.

1. The limits of age for this situation are 21 and 30, and Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the Competitive part of the Examination.

2. Candidates will be required to show what preliminary training or technical education they have undergone to qualify themselves for a situation of this nature. They must produce to the Civil Service Commissioners a certificate from the Astronomer Royal, or from the head of a recognized Observatory, that they have had the technical training and possess the technical knowledge necessary to qualify them for making observations. Evidence on this point must be sent in at such times as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint. If it should prove prima facie satisfactory, the Candidate will be admitted to Examination, subject, in the case of his being successful in the competition, to such further enquiry and the production of such further evidence as may be necessary.

3. The Examination will consist of two parts, and will be in the following subjects, viz.:—

PART I.—PRELIMINARY.

Handwriting.

Orthography.

Arithmetic (including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions).

English Composition.

* * * No Candidate who fails to shew satisfactory proficiency in any of the subjects specified above will be admitted to the competitive part of the examination.
