All offences under such Bye-laws and Regulations shall be deemed to be offences within the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1883, and to be punishable accordingly. The Local Board for the district of Penarth, in the county of Glamorgan, being the Sanitary Authority in and for the said district, do hereby, at a Meeting held on the 5th day of June, 1893, pass the following Bye-laws:—

1. In these Bye-laws the expression "Registered Common Lodging-house" means a common lodging-house registered as such pursuant to the enactments and Bye-laws or Regulations in force in that behalf in the Local Board District of Penarth, and the expression "Registered Lodging-house" means a lodging-house registered as let in lodgings or occupied by members of more than one family, pursuant to the enactments and Bye-laws or regulations in force in that behalf in the said district.

2. On the written application of the keeper of any Registered Common Lodging-house or Registered Lodging-house made in such form and stating such particulars as the Local Board may require, the Local Board will (subject as hereinafter mentioned), if they see fit, grant to such keeper a licence authorizing him to designate his Registered House a Seamen's Licensed Lodging-house. A licence may contain such conditions, not being inconsistent with the laws, Bye-laws and Regulations for the time being in force in the Local Board District and being specified in licence as the Local Board see fit.

3. Such licence shall not be granted in respect of any house not being a Registered Common Lodging-house or Registered Lodging-house, nor in respect of any house where intoxicating liquor is sold, nor in respect of any house occupied or used for the purpose of business of a clothier or outfitter, or slop dealer. Such licence shall not be granted to a person who holds a licence for the sale of intoxicating liquor, or who is engaged or interested in the business of a clothier, outfitter, or slop dealer.

4. The Local Board shall cause to be kept a Register of all licences granted under these Bye-laws, and the suspension or revocation of any licence shall be noted in that Register.

5. A licence granted to any person under these Bye-laws is not transferable to any other person, and any holder of a licence who transfers or lends the same to any other person is deemed guilty of a breach of these Bye-laws.

6. A licence granted under these Bye-laws continues (subject to suspension or revocation as in these Bye-laws provided) for one year from the date of the grant thereof; but the Local Board may at their discretion refuse to renew any licence.

7. A licence granted under these Bye-laws may be suspended or revoked by the Local Board on breach of any of its conditions or on the conviction of the holder for any felony, misdemeanour, or offence against any law, Bye-law, or Regulation for the time being in force in the Local Board District, or on the Local Board being satisfied that the holder has been guilty of a breach of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, or the Acts amending the same; or has kept a house in which drunkenness, gambling, or immoral or fraudulent practices prevail, or has been a party to such proceedings, or neglects to remove from the lodging-house any persons of known immoral character who may have entered therein. Within seven days after suspension of or revocation of a licence the holder shall deliver his licence to the Clerk of the Local Board; but at the expiration of a period of suspension the licence shall be returned to the holder.

8. Every (person) keeper of a Seamen's Licensed Lodging-house and every other person having or acting in the care of or management thereof, shall at all times when required by the Medical Officer of Health, or Lodging-house Inspector, or Inspector of Nuisances of the District, the Chief Constable, or any Superintendent or Inspector of the Police Force for the county of Glamorgan, or any Detective Officer especially authorized by the Chief Constable for the purpose, or any Officer of the Board of Trade, give them or any of them free access to such house.

9. Any person who not being the holder of a licence under these Bye-laws, and any holder of a licence who, during a period of suspension, uses or publishes any sign, notice, inscription, ticket, placard, advertisement, circular, letter, or other document stating or implying that his house is a Seamen's Licensed Lodging-house, is deemed guilty of a breach of the Bye-laws. Every person guilty of a breach of these Bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

10. Nothing in these Bye-laws shall in any way prejudice or affect the operation of the enactments, Bye-laws, or Regulations applicable to any Registered Common Lodging-house or Registered Lodging-house as such, or to any keeper of any such house.

11. These Bye-laws shall take effect from the 14th day of July, 1893.
