AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of August, 1893.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of the Pluralities Act 1838 after reciting that "Whereas in some instances titlings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such titling, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining titling, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said

Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and enquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend Francis John, Lord Bishop of Chester, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, represented in a writing dated the sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple, Lord Archbishop of York, as follows:—

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Dalrymple Lord Archbishop of the Province of York.

"I Francis John Lord Bishop of Chester do hereby represent to your Grace that there is in the county and diocese of Chester the benefice or vicarage of Bowdon the parish whereof comprises amongst other places the places hamlets or districts within the township of Ashton-upon-Mersey which are mentioned and described in the schedule to the scheme hereinafter mentioned and referred to and are delineated on the plan annexed to the tithe commutation award of that part of the said township of Ashton-upon-Mersey which lies within the said parish of Bowdon confirmed by the Tithe Commissioners for England and Wales on the thirtieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

"That the said places hamlets or districts are distant from the parish church of Bowdon afore-
