

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies has, pursuant to 38 and 39 Vic., c. 60, s. 12, by writing under his hand, dated the 29th day of August, 1893, suspended for three months the Registry of the Newton-le-Willows Burial Society, Register No. 3500, held at the Blue Bell Inn, Newton-le-Willows, in the county of Lancaster, on the ground that the Society has wilfully, and after notice from a Registrar, violated the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, in respect of the valuation of its assets and liabilities. The Society ceases to enjoy during such suspension the privileges of a registered Society, but without prejudice to any liability incurred by the Society, which may be enforced against it as if such suspension had not taken place.

E. W. Brabrook, Chief Registrar.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of August, 1893.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.

Lord Kensington.

Lord Playfair.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a letter from Messrs. Markby Stewart and Co., dated the twenty-fourth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, submitting certain Bye-laws of the Institute of Chemistry of Great Britain and Ireland as altered by the Resolutions passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Institute held on the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, and confirmed at a subsequent Extraordinary General Meeting of the Institute held on the seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

And whereas by section 19 of the Charter for the Incorporation of the Institute it is provided that Bye-laws made by the Institute shall not have effect until they have been submitted to and allowed by the Lords of the Council:

Now, therefore, their Lordships, having taken the said Bye-laws into consideration (a copy of which is hereunto annexed), are pleased to allow the same.

C. L. Peel.

BYE-LAWS referred to in foregoing Order.

BYE-LAWS of the Institute of Chemistry of Great Britain and Ireland as altered by the Resolutions passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Institute on the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, and confirmed at a subsequent Extraordinary General Meeting of the Institute on seventh June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

4. The above-mentioned General Meetings shall be called Ordinary Meetings, and shall be held for the transaction of the ordinary annual business of the Institute, that is to say, for the election of the Council, Censors, and Auditors, for the remuneration (if any) of such Auditors, and for receiving and adopting the Annual Accounts, with the Auditors' Report, and a Report from the Council. All other general meetings shall be called extraordinary.

8. A Member wishing to bring before the Annual General Meeting any motion not relating to the ordinary annual business of the Institute, shall give notice thereof to the Registrar not less than twenty-one days before the date at which such Meeting shall be held, and no such motion shall come before the Meeting unless notice thereof has been given.

(Bye-law 10 expunged and Bye-laws 11 to 31 renumbered accordingly).

10. Except as otherwise provided by these presents no business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless twelve members of whom if only twelve not more than six shall be Members of Council shall be personally present at the time when the Meeting proceeds to business.

11. If within thirty minutes from the time appointed for the general meeting a quorum of twelve members, as provided in Bye-law 10, is not present the Meeting if convened upon the requisition of Members shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place. No notice of such adjournment shall be necessary, and at such adjourned Meeting the Members present whatever may be their number and whether Members of Council or not shall have power to decide all matters which could properly have been disposed of by a quorum at the original Meeting.

13. If there be no such Chairman, or if at any general meeting he be not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or be unwilling to act as Chairman of the Meeting, the Members of Council present or in their absence or if all such Members present decline to act then the Members present shall choose some one of their number to be Chairman.

23. Any instrument appointing a proxy shall be taken in the form or to the effect following:

(The Form of Proxy remains unaltered.)

26. In case of a vacancy by death resignation or otherwise occurring in the office of the President, Treasurer or any Vice-President between the dates of two yearly meetings such vacancy shall be filled up by the Council, under the provisions of Section 2 of the Charter; and in the case of any other vacancy arising from the same causes in the Council the same shall be filled up by the Council at a Meeting of the Council summoned with notice of that object; but any person chosen by the Council under this clause shall retain his office so long only as the vacating officer or Member of Council would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred.

28. The office of President, Vice-President, Treasurer, or Member of Council shall be vacated by any person who shall cease for any reason to be a Member of the Institute, or shall—

1. Hold any Office or place of profit under the Institute.

2. Become lunatic, or of unsound mind.

3. Become bankrupt, or file a petition for liquidation of his affairs.

4. Be absent from five successive ordinary meetings of the Council without their consent.

30. Any President who shall have held the Office of President and any Vice-President who shall have held the office of Vice-President for three years successively shall become ineligible for re-election to such office until the Annual General Meeting held next after his retirement; two of the Vice-Presidents, and nine of the ordinary Members of Council, shall be ineligible for re-election to the Council until the Annual General Meeting held next after their retirement, provided always that any retiring or otherwise ineligible Treasurer or ordinary Member of Council shall be eligible for election as President or as a Vice-President, and any retiring Vice-President shall be eligible for election as President. And any retiring President, Vice-Presi-
