THE Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch, dated 9th September, 1893, from Her Majesty's Representative at Trieste, enclosing the following translation of a Quarantine Circular, issued by the Austro-Hungarian Marine Board:—

Translation of Circular No. 8872, from the Imperial Royal Marine Board at Trieste, to all the Imperial Royal Offices and Subordinate Sanitary Offices and Port Officers.

THE High Imperial Royal Minister for Commerce, by Decree, dated September 4, 1893, No. 45348, has determined that, with reference to the Rules of the "International Sanitary Convention of Dresden," and to present sanitary conditions, the medical observation of seven days against arrivals from the Russian ports of the Black Sea, from the Sea of Azov, from the Baltic, and from the Danube, as well as the strict medical visit for arrivals from the coast of Syria (from Jaffa to Berout), from Northern France, from Belgium, Netherlands, from the German ports (the mouth of the Elbe included), from the stretch of coast between Cape Jeros-Burum and Batoum (this last port included), and from the Turkish ports of the Black Sea, is hereby annulled.

Ordering, at the same time, that arrivals from the ports in South Russia (and especially in Podolia and Bessarabia), where it is to be presumed there exists still the possibility of infection, are to be treated according to the rules agreed upon at the "International Convention of Dresden."

Trieste, September 7, 1893.

The President,
BECHER.
