Madrid, February 21.

THE Council of State is at present employed about sending Supplies of Money to Flanders and Milan. Several new raised Regiments are marching to reinforce our Army in Catalonia. Last night dyed here the Duke of Medina Celi. At Cadix they work with great diligence on the Men of War, which are ordered to be ready to go to Sea by the end of the next Month.

Vienna, March 4. The Poles make vigorous Preparations for the next Campaign, and we promise our selves they will give the Turks a great Defeat. Count Charles of Walstein is (tis said) going to the Court of Poland to concert the necessary Measures for that purpose, and he is to carry with him the Order of the Golden Fleece for Prince James, the more to engage him in the Interests of the House of Austria. From Croatia we have the confirmation of the late Success of our Troops against the Turks at Novi, and that they have since taken several Prisoners, who say, the Enemy lost above 500 men in that Action, and amongst them Mechamed Beg Governor of Bilach. The Turks make great Efforts to bring a numerous Army into the Field the next Summer. The Imperial Forces are ordered for this Year's Service as follows.

Brest in Silesia, March 8. The Princess Elizabeth of Saxony arrived here this Evening, being received by the Regiments and Garrison in Arms, and Complimented by our Magistrates, and to morrow or the day following she will commence her Journey towards Poland, whither she is conducted by the Bishop of Posna, Amb. Extraordinary at that Crown.

Frankfort, March 14. The Troops of the Elector of Saxony will certainly begin their march towards the Rhine before the end of this Month; and in the mean time, a Magazine is here providing for them. The Imperial Forces are likewise preparing to be early in the Field. And we are assured, that the Confederate Army, which is to act on the Upper Rhine this Summer, will consist of 45000 Men.

Dublin, March 10. We have an account from Corke of the 5th instant, that Captain Weekes with a Party of the Militia went out some days before to the Borders of Kerry, where they met a Party of Rapperies, who run at the first sight of them; but our Men pursuing them, wounded several, and killed two of their Captains, whose Heads they brought to Corke, with one of the Rebels, (whom they took Prisoner) and a considerable Booty of Cattel. Another Detachment of the Militia, to the number of about 100, commanded by Captain Townsend, made an Excursion about the same time into the Enemies Quarters, and met a strong Party of the Rebels, who, upon our advancing towards them, fled, and run so fast, that our Men killed but one of them; but brought off 300 Head of Black Cattle, and 400 Sheep.

On the first of this Month a Detachment of Danes, commanded by Colonel Dunop's Captain-Lieutenant, another of Colonel Viller's Regiment under the Command of Captain Carpenter, and a Party of the Militia, marched from Tallow to free the Country of the Rapperies, and having left the Frontiers quiet, returned to their Quarters, bringing back with them one O Conner, and one Prenderghast, with their Horses and Arms.

From Clonmel, of the first instant, we hear, that the Friday before Captain Blunt the High-Sheriff of that County, with his Troop of Dragoons, a Troop of Danes, and another Detachment, commanded by the Governor of Clonmel, marched 20 miles into the Enemies Quarters as far as Mitchels-Town, burnt a great number of Cabins, killed 47 of the Rapperies, and took 13 Prisoners, without any loss on our side.

On the 3d instant Colonel Caufield sent 20 Firelocks to joyn Captain Pallasfer, commanding at Cavan in the King's County, who having made them up 70, marched with them 5 or 6 miles into the Enemies Quarters, and about midnight came to a place called Killifulla near Portumna, where he surpris'd Captain Carroll, and a Troop of the Lord Galmoy's Regiment, of whom our Men killed and took 27, took all their Horses, Cloaks, and Accoutrements, and got a good Booty.

From Ballisodan we are told, that on the 24th past Cornet Ruffe's, and ano her Officer of the Irish Army, who were in Garrison at Benbulbin, made their escape to our Quarters, and reported, that the Enemies Horse are in a very ill condition; That a great number of Men had
