THE Board of Trade have received, through the Foreign Office, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Representative at St. Petersburg, enclosing the following Quarantine Regulations, issued by the Russian Government respecting the establishment of rules for the adoption of precautionary measures against the introduction of epidemic diseases across the maritime boundaries of Russia.

By Section 5 of the Regulations confirmed by His Majesty on the 26th April (8th May), 1893, for the adoption of precautionary measures against the introduction of epidemic diseases across the maritime boundaries of the Empire, the Minister of the Interior is empowered to issue, within the scope of those regulations, rules of obligatory force for all branches of the service, institutions, and persons.

In fulfilment of such Imperial Ordinance the Minister of the Interior confirmed on the 3rd (15th) day of July, 1893, the following: (1) Instructions for the disinfection of goods imported at frontier medico-inspection stations and Maritime Quarantine Establishments; (2) Instructions for Maritime Quarantine Establishments; (3) Rules for the guidance of shipowners and masters of seagoing passenger vessels plying between internal ports; (4) Instructions for ships' surgeons on board seagoing passenger vessels plying between internal ports.

The Minister of the Interior forwarded on the 10th (22nd) July, 1893, copies of these Regulations to the Ruling Senate for promulgation.

Regulations for the Disinfection of Goods imported at Frontier Medico-Inspection Stations and Quarantine Establishments.

1. Goods arriving from places declared by the Minister of the Interior as being infected by cholera may be imported, but are subjected to disinfection if the wrapping or exterior surface of such goods bears evident traces of being defiled by human or animal excreta, or if there be reason to suppose that these goods have been in immediate contact with persons suffering from infectious diseases. (Section 15 of the Regulation confirmed by His Imperial Majesty on the 24th March, 1893.)
