

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

CARRINGTON,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Privy Council Office, Whitehall,
February 14, 1894.*

IN pursuance of the provisions of the Charter constituting "The University of Wales," I hereby call the first Meeting of The University Court for Friday, the 6th day of April, 1894.

The Meeting to be held at twelve o'clock noon, in the Council Chamber, Whitehall, London.

Kimberley.

*Privy Council Office, Whitehall,
February 14, 1894.*

IN pursuance of the provisions of the Charter constituting "The University of Wales," I hereby appoint "The Raven Hotel," Shrewsbury, as the place at which the Guild of Graduates shall first meet, and eleven o'clock A.M., on the 17th day of March, 1894, as the time at which the Meeting is to be held.

Kimberley.

UNIVERSITY OF WALES.

REGULATIONS for Appointment of Representatives on the University Court by Head Teachers of Public Intermediate and Elementary Schools.

WHEREAS by Royal Charter dated the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, constituting the University of Wales, it is provided that the University Court shall comprise (amongst other persons)—

Three persons appointed by the Head Teachers of Public Intermediate Schools in Wales and the county of Monmouth (which county is in the said Charter, and hereafter in these presents included in the term "Wales"), all of which said three persons so appointed shall be Head Teachers of, and one at least of whom shall be a Head Mistress of, one of such Public Intermediate Schools, and

Three persons appointed by the Head Teachers of the Public Elementary Schools in Wales, all of which said three persons so appointed shall be Head Teachers of, and one at least of whom shall be a Head Mistress of, one of such Public Elementary Schools;

And it is further provided that the mode and manner in which the appointment of Members of the Court by the Head Teachers of Public Schools in Wales shall be made, shall be as from time to time determined by the Lord President of the Privy Council by writing under his hand:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers vested in me by virtue of the said Charter, I do hereby determine and order as follows:—

1. For the purpose of the appointment of Members of the Court by the Head Teachers of Public Intermediate Schools and of Public Elementary Schools, respectively, there shall be from time to time an election, at which every Head Teacher of an Intermediate or of an Elementary School (as the case may be) shall be entitled to vote for each of any number of such Head Teachers, not exceeding the number to be appointed.

2. The returning officer, at some time not less than one month nor more than six weeks before the expiration of the term of office of the persons appointed in pursuance of any such election to be members of the Court, and as soon as conveniently may be after the occurrence of any casual vacancy arising from the death or resignation of any such person, shall cause a notice to be published stating that an election is about to be held, and specifying the day on or before which, and the place at which, voting papers must be returned by persons voting at the election. The notice shall be published in two or more newspapers circulating in Wales, and shall be in the form marked A in the Appendix to these regulations or to the like effect:

Provided that, in the case of a casual vacancy through death or resignation occurring within six months before the expiration of the term of office of the persons appointed in pursuance of any such election to be members of the Court, an election shall not be held to fill such vacancy except on a requisition in writing addressed to the returning officer and signed in the case of the Intermediate Schools by not less than ten, and in the case of the Elementary Schools by not less than fifty, of the teachers entitled to vote at the election.

For the purpose of the first election, the notice as above-mentioned shall be published on or before the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

3. It shall be the duty of the returning officer, at least seven days before the day on or before which it is declared in the notice that voting papers must be returned, to cause a voting paper to be forwarded by post or otherwise to each person entitled to vote at the election, but the election shall not be rendered void by reason of the omission of the returning officer to cause a voting paper to be forwarded in any particular case or cases, and any person entitled to vote who has not received a voting paper may, on application to the returning officer, obtain from him a voting paper.

4. Each voter shall write on the voting paper delivered to him the name or names of the person or persons for whom he votes (not exceeding the number to be appointed), and shall sign the voting paper and append to his signature and to the name of each person for whom he votes the name of the school, and the department thereof, of which such voter or person is Head Teacher; and the voting paper shall be returned by post or otherwise to the appointed place on or before the appointed day. Votes shall not be given except upon the voting papers provided by the returning officer, which shall be in the form marked B in the appendix to these regulations, or to the like effect. Every voting paper in respect of which any requirement of these regulations has not been complied with or which is not received at the appointed place on or before the appointed day, shall be invalid.

5. The returning officer, immediately after the day on or before which voting papers are required to be returned, shall cause the validity of the votes to be ascertained in such manner as he may think necessary, and shall cause such of the votes as are found to be valid, and to have been duly returned, to be counted, and the number of such votes given for each person to be ascertained. The decision of the returning officer on any question touching the validity of a voting paper or vote shall be final.

6. The person or persons to the number to be elected, who, being duly qualified, has or have received the greatest number of votes, shall be deemed to be appointed by the Head Teachers of Public Intermediate or Elementary Schools (as the case may be) to be a member or members of