[This Order is published in substitution for that which appeared in the London Gazette of the 2nd February, 1894.]

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight the 29th day of January, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Honourable Evan Edward Charteris Barrister-at-Law, duly appointed in pursuance of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, as Commissioner for determining the boundaries of the Wards of the borough of Doncaster, and for apportioning Councillors thereto, has transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State his scheme in the following terms:—

"WHEREAS Her Majesty has been pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council and in pursuance and exercise of the power vested in Her Majesty by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882 to fix the number of Wards into which the borough of Doncaster in the county of Yorkshire shall be divided and to order and direct that the said borough shall be divided into six Wards which Order was made on the twenty-sixth day of August one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

"And whereas on the twentieth day of September in the year last aforesaid the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department did duly appoint me the Honourable Evan Edward Charteris, Barrister-at-Law for the purpose of determining the boundaries of such Wards and apportioning the number of the Councillors of the said borough among such Wards and apportioning Councillors for the Wards altered amongst the new Wards as in the said Act mentioned.

"Now I the said Evan Edward Charteris do hereby in pursuance of the powers given me by virtue of the said appointment under the said Act determine as hereinafter-mentioned the boundaries of the six Wards into which the said borough is to be divided which Wards are hereinafter numbered and named as follows, that is to say:—
