

advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of March, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council did on the twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven order that on and after the fifteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven the then present District Probate Registrar should be and was thereby appointed one of the persons to perform the duties of District Registrar of the High Court of Justice in Manchester, and the then present District Registrar and the District Probate Registrar aforesaid should be deemed accordingly to be Joint District Registrars and should perform all the duties of District Registrar in the District Registry in Manchester in such manner as they might with the approval of the Lord Chancellor and the President of the Probate Divorce and Admiralty

Division of the High Court of Justice from time to time arrange:

And whereas the office of one of the District Registrars so appointed is now vacant:

And whereas it is desirable that the duties of District Registrar in Manchester should continue to be performed by two persons, and that the present surviving District Registrar and the present District Probate Registrar in Manchester should be such two persons:

Now therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that on and after this third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, the present District Probate Registrar shall be and is hereby appointed one of the persons to perform the duties of District Registrar in Manchester, and the present District Registrar and the District Probate Registrar aforesaid shall be deemed accordingly to be Joint District Registrars and shall perform all the duties of District Registrar in the District Registry in Manchester in such manner as they may with the approval of the Lord Chancellor and the President of the Probate, Divorce, and Admiralty Division of the High Court of Justice from time to time arrange.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3rd day of March, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Marquess of Ripon.

Earl Spencer.

Mr. Gladstone.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, it was amongst other things enacted that, where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient; and that if, by any law made after the passing of the Act of 1870 by the Legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in such British possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Acts in the case of any foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Acts, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such foreign State, and so long as such Law continues in force there and no longer:

And whereas by an Act of the Parliament of Canada passed in 1886, and entitled "An Act respecting the Extradition of Fugitive Criminals," provision is made for carrying into effect within the Dominion the surrender of fugitive criminals:

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated the seventeenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, it was directed that the operation of the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, should be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so long as the provision of the said Act of the Parliament of Canada of 1886 should continue in force and no longer:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the seventeenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, between Her Majesty and His Majesty the King of Portugal for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and His Most Faithful Majesty the King of Portugal and of the Algarves, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within their respective territories, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up, the said High Contracting Parties have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say:

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, Sir George Glynn Petre, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Companion of the Most

Sua Magestade a Rainha do Reino Unido da Grã-Bretanha e Irlanda, Imperatriz da Índia, e Sua Magestade Fidelíssima o Rei de Portugal e dos Algarves, julgando conveniente para melhorar a administração da justiça e obstar á perpetração de crimes nos seus respectivos territorios, que os individuos accusados ou condemnados por algum dos crimes abaixo indicados, e foragidos da justiça, sejam, dadas certas circumstancias, reciprocamente entregues, nomearam seus Plenipotenciarios para a celebração d'um Tratado com este intuito, a saber:

Sua Magestade a Rainha do Reino Unido da Grã-Bretanha e Irlanda, Imperatriz da Índia, e Sir George Glynn Petre, Comendador da Muito Distincta Ordem de São Miguel e São Jorge, Cavalleiro da Muito Nobre Ordem do Banho, seu
