The Tramways Act, 1870.

Tong Local Board Tramway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is the intention of the Tong Local Board, being the Urban Authority for the District of Tong, in the West Riding of the county of York (hereinafter called the Local Board), to grant a lease to the Bradford Tramways and Omnibus Company Limited (hereinafter called the Lessees) of the lines of tramways described in the schedule hereto for the purpose of conveying passengers, animals, goods, minerals, and parcels, and right of demanding and taking in respect of the same the tolls and charges authorized by the Tong Local Board Tramway Order, 1890, except and reserving unto the Local Board the right to use the tramways at certain times for any purposes they may require free of tolls:—

Term.—From the 12th day of March, 1894, to the 31st day of January, 1903.

Rent.—£240 per mile of single line of tramway, payable quarterly.

The lease contains the following covenants on the part of the Lessees:—

As to payment of the rent, rates, and taxes.

As to working the demised tramway in accordance with the said Act and Provisional Order, the Local Board to have power to make bye-laws for the working of the tramway and such other powers as are conferred on Local Authorities by the said Act and Provisional Order.

To indemnify the Local Board against all accidents, damages, or injuries through their or their servants' default.

The lease contains the following covenants by the Local Board:—

For quiet enjoyment.

To repair the tramway.

The lease also contains declarations by the Lessees to provide plant, &c., for the efficient working of the tramway; to pay rent for any additional crossings, passing-places, &c.; to permit user of tramway by Local Board at certain times for any purpose they may require free of toll; and proper powers of distress and entry for non-payment of rent and non-observance of covenants, for reference of disputes to arbitration, and a saving of the rights of the Local Board as the Local Authority. And the said lease also contains declarations by the Local Board to make first offer of lease of any new lines to be constructed by them for a term expiring on the same day as the present lease, and at the same rental, and that if the Lessees shall agree with the Corporation of Bradford for a further lease of their tramways, to grant a further lease of the Tong Tramway for a like period.

The SCHEDULE referred to.

A tramway (partly a single line and partly double) 1 mile 2 furlongs 4 chains in length or thereabouts, of which 1 mile 0 furlongs 4·70 chains shall be laid as a single line, and 1 furlong 9·30 chains as double line, commencing in Tong-street, in the Bradford and Wakefield-road, at the boundary line of the borough of Bradford, within the said district, passing thence in a southerly direction along the aforesaid street and the Birkenshaw-road, and terminating in the last-named road at the boundary line of the district of the Hunsworth Local Board.

And further take notice that a copy of the said lease is deposited in the office of the undersigned in Tong-street, within the said district, where the same may be inspected at all reasonable times.

By order,

M. BANKS NEWELL, Solicitor and Clerk to the Tong Local Board.

ShIPLEY Local Board.

Lease of Tramways.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Shipley Local Board (hereinafter called "the Lessors") propose to grant a lease of tramways within their district to the Bradford Tramways and Omnibus Company Limited (hereinafter called "the Lessees"), and that after the expiration of one month from the 17th day of March, 1894, a copy of such proposed lease will be submitted to and for the approval of the Board of Trade.

The term of such proposed lease will be nine years and eight months, commencing as from the 1st day of June, 1893, and ending on the 1st day of February, 1903, being conterminous with leases to the Lessees of tramways in the county borough of Bradford.

The rent reserved by such proposed lease will be £2.0 per annum in respect of the tramways comprised therein and already constructed, with an additional rent calculated at the rate of £240 per mile of single line in respect of the crossings, passing places, sidings, junctions or works (if any), which may be made by the Lessors during the term in manner therein mentioned.

The total length of the tramways comprised in such proposed lease is 2,613 yards, and the situation, course, and direction thereof are more particularly described in such proposed lease, the whole of such tramways being situate within the district of the Lessors.

The covenants and conditions in such proposed lease are, generally, as follows, that is to say:—

On the part of the Lessees: For payment of rent, taxes, rates, and outgoings; not to assign or underlet without the written consent of the Lessors; to observe the Regulations and By-laws of the Lessors; for proper working of the tramways; to indemnify the Lessors against accidents, damages, or injuries, and claims and demands on account thereof; to provide everything required for efficient working of the tramways, including necessary land, buildings, servants, carriages, horses, engines, and plant; limited authority for the use of steam or other mechanical power; provision for control of tramcars, drivers, and conductors; restriction on claims against the Lessors for interference with traffic; covenant for quiet delivery on termination of the lease; and

On behalf of the Lessors: Provision for re-entry on non-payment of rent; breach of covenant, discontinuance of working of the tramways, or bankruptcy, liquidation, composition, or winding up by or of the Lessees; covenant for quiet enjoyment, and to keep the tramways in working order; reservation of powers and rights of the Lessors under Acts of Parliament and Provisional Orders therein mentioned; agreement for arbitration in case of differences.

And notice is hereby further given, that a copy of such proposed lease is deposited for public inspection at the offices of the Shipley Local Board at Shipley, in the said district, and that the same may be inspected there on any day, except Sundays, during business hours.

Dated this 15th day of March, 1894.

By order,

JNO. S. RHODES, Clerk to the Local Board.

In the Matter of the United Mexican Mining Company Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the following Special Resolution, altering the abovenamed Company's Memorandum of Association, was duly passed and confirmed at Extraordinary General Meetings of the abovenamed Company, held on Monday, the 8th, and Friday, the 26th day of January, 1894, viz.:—"That the provisions of the Company's Memorandum of Association with respect to the objects of the Company may be altered in manner following, that is to say, by striking out from clause 3 thereof the whole of the said clause from and including the words 'and secondly,' to the end of the clause, and by substituting for the part so struck out the following, that is to say: (ii.) The purchasing, taking on lease, or otherwise acquiring any mines, mining rights, and metalliferous land in Mexico, or elsewhere, and any interest therein, and the exploring, working, exercising, developing, and turning to account of the same. (iii.) The raising, purchasing, selling, crushing, smelting, reduction, refining, and generally rendering marketable of ore, metal, and mineral substances of all kinds, and the conversion of the same into coin. (iv.) The purchasing, acquiring, selling, manufacturing, and dealing in minerals, plant, machinery, implements, conveniences, and things capable of being used in connection with metallurgical operations, or required by workmen and others employed therein. (v.) The construction, acquisition, maintenance, management, working, and control of any roads, tramways, railways, furnaces, mills, and other works, buildings, land, and conveniences necessary for or conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company. (vi.) The borrowing or raising of money upon such security as the Company may think fit, and in particular on the security of debentures or debenture stock, constituting a charge upon all or any part of the Company's undertaking or property. (vii.) The acquisition of and carrying on of all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, contracts, and liabilities of any other Company or person carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, and the amalgamation, union, or combination in whole or in part, with any such Company or person. (viii.) The subscription for or acquisition of debentures, shares, or obligations of or issued by any Company with which this Company may have entered into any such amalgamation, union, or combination as aforesaid. (ix.) The selling, leasing, mortgaging, or otherwise dealing with the whole or any part or parts of the undertaking and property, rights, or interests of the Company. (x.) The doing of all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects." And notice is hereby further given, that the petition to confirm the proposed alteration will be heard before Mr. Justice Stirling, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Saturday, the 5th day of May, 1894, when any persons whose interests will, in the opinion of the Court, be affected by the alteration, and who are desirous of opposing the petition, may appear and be heard by Counsel. A copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or shareholder of the said Company requiring the same by the undersigned, on payment of the regulated charges for the same.—Dated the 9th March, 1894.

STONE, KING, and Co., Bath, Solicitors for the Company.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, dated 5th day of February, 1894, and made in the Matter of Ex parte the Undertaking of the Towcester and Buckingham Railway Bill, and in the Matter of the Act 9th and 10th Victoria, chapter 20, and in the Matter of the Towcester and Buckingham Railway Act, 1889, and the Towcester and Buckingham Railway (Abandonment) Act, 1893. Any landowner or other person whose property has been interfered with or otherwise rendered less valuable by the commencement, construction, or abandonment of the said Towcester and Buckingham Railway, or any portion thereof, or who has been subjected to any injury or loss in consequence of the exercise of the compulsory powers conferred upon the said Company by the said Act of 1889, and for which injury or loss no compensation or inadequate compensation has been paid; and any owner or occupier of any land to which any damage has been occasioned by the entry of the said Company on such land for the purpose of surveying and taking levels, or probing or boring to ascertain the nature of the soil, or setting out of the line of railway, and any such owner or occupier of any land which may have been temporarily occupied by the said Company for the purposes of the railway in respect of such temporary occupation, or for any loss, or damage, or injury, which may have been sustained by such owner or occupier, by reason thereof, or of the exercise, as regards such land, of any of the powers contained in the Railway Consolidation Act, 1845, or the said Towcester and Buckingham Railway Act, 1889; and any person claiming to have entered into any contract with, or to whom any notice was given by the Company before the passing of the Towcester and Buckingham Railway (Abandonment) Act, 1893, for the purchase of any land for the purposes of or in relation to the said railway, or any portion thereof, and claiming compensation for injury or damage sustained by them by reason of the purchase not being completed pursuant to such contract or notice; and any creditor claiming any debt, liability, or engagement of the said Company which ought to be paid out of the funds in Court to the credit of "Ex parte the Undertaking of the Towcester and Buckingham Railway Bill, 1889," are hereby severally required, on or before the 12th day of April, 1894, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of Mr. Justice Kekewich, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, Middlesex, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Thursday, the 19th day of April, 1894, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 12th day of March, 1894.

In the High Court of Justice.—Companies (Winding-up).

Mr. Justice Vaughan Williams.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1890, and in the Matter of Sextons' Central Horse Repository Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Order, dated the 7th March, 1894, made on the petition of David Charteris, of Page-street, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, Builder, a creditor of the abovenamed Company, it was ordered that the voluntary winding up of Sextons' Central Horse Repository Limited be continued, but subject to the supervision of the Court, and any of the proceedings under the said voluntary winding up might be adopted as the Court might think fit; and it was ordered that Walter Short, the Liquidator of the said Company, do on the 7th of April next, and on the same day in each succeeding month, file with the Registrar in Companies (Winding-up) a report, in writing, as to the position of and the progress made with the winding up of the said Company, and with the realization of the assets thereof, and as to any other matters connected with the winding up as the Court might from time to time direct; and it was ordered that no bills of costs, charges, or expenses, or special remuneration of any Solicitor employed by the Liquidator or any remuneration, charges, or expenses of such Liquidator, or of any manager, accountant, auctioneer, broker, or other person, be paid out of the assets of the said Company unless such bills of costs, charges and expenses, or remuneration shall have been taxed or ascertained by the Registrar in Companies (Winding-up); and it was ordered that all such costs, charges and expenses, and remuneration be taxed or ascertained accordingly. And it was further ordered that the costs of the petition of the petitioner, the Company, and of John Pallister, a creditor supporting, be taxed and paid out of the assets of the said Company; and the creditors, contributories, and Liquidator of the said Company, and all other persons interested, are to be at liberty to apply as there may be occasion.

ARCHIBALD DONALDSON, 37, Bedford-row, W.C., Solicitor for the said David Charteris.
