

hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, made a representation, stating that for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with certain modifications:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the thirtieth day of April last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fourteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued, as follows; viz.:-

PATTISHALL.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Pattishall, in the county of Northampton; and also in the churchyard, after the first March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves and earthen graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

BLAENAVON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Old Horeb Baptist Chapel and chapelyard, in the parish of Blaenavon, in the county of Monmouth.

GLEMSFORD.—Forthwith and entirely in Ebenezer Baptist Chapel, in the parish of Glemsford, in the county of Suffolk, and also in the chapelyard, within three feet of any dwelling; and in the rest of the chapelyard, except as follows:—

In such partly walled graves and earthen graves as are now existing in the chapelyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

RINGSTEAD.—Forthwith and entirely in the Baptist Chapel and chapelyard in the parish of Ringstead, in the county of Northampton.

COWBRIDGE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Baptist Chapel in the parish of Cowbridge, in the county of Glamorgan; and also in the chapelyard except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the chapelyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the chapelyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

BOLAS MAGNA.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Bolas Magna, in the county of Salop; and also in the churchyard after the thirtieth September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves and earthen graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

CODDENHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Coddenham, in the county of Suffolk; and also in the churchyard, after the thirtieth September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves and earthen graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of this Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

SUTTON-WITH-DUCKMANTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Sutton-with-Duckmanton, in the county of Derby; and also in the churchyard except as follows:—

In such reserved grave spaces now existing in the churchyard as have never before been buried in, and which when opened are free from water, burials may be allowed of Mrs. Fanny Susan Arkwright and Mrs. Maria Anderson Humble in vaults or graves not less than five feet deep.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of June, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act,
