

Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-first day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district or new parish for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Mary Islington in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Mary Islington which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district or new parish for ecclesiastical purposes in the manner hereinafter set forth.

“And whereas there is within the limits of the district or new parish so hereinafter recommended and proposed to be constituted as aforesaid a consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship being the church or chapel of ease situate in the Holloway-road in the said parish of Saint Mary Islington which said church or chapel of ease was erected under the provisions of a certain local Act of the fifty-first year of His late Majesty King George the Third chapter one hundred and thirty-four.

“And whereas in pursuance of another local Act being an Act of the fifth year of His late Majesty, King George the Fourth chapter one hundred and twenty-five the whole right of patronage of and nomination to the said church or chapel of ease became vested in the vicar of the said parish of Saint Mary Islington and in his successors for the time being.

“And whereas a scheme under the Charitable Trusts Acts 1853 to 1887 has been approved by an Order dated the third day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three of the Chancery Division of Your Majesty's High Court of Justice in the matter of the estate of the late Robert Alger Newbon deceased whereby certain trustees were appointed for the management of the charity and it was provided that if within twelve months from the date of such scheme coming into operation the said church or chapel of ease should be legally constituted a new or district parish church under the provisions of the New Parishes Acts or the Church Building Acts or any of them a fund should be established for the permanent endowment of the incumbency of such new church as follows (that is to say) the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds should be set apart in each year out of the income of the said charity upon condition nevertheless that an equivalent reduction be made in the amount of the rents authorized to be taken for pews or sittings in the said church or chapel of ease and such sum should be paid by the trustees to the incumbent for the time being of the said new parish by equal quarterly payments.

“And whereas certain arrangements have been made whereby the amount of the pew rents in the said church or chapel of ease shall be reduced as required by the said Scheme and Order of the Court and the said annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds will accordingly become payable to the incumbent of the district and new parish hereinafter recommended to be constituted and to his successors immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme.

“And whereas a faculty for laying out the burial ground attached to the said chapel of ease (which burial ground has been closed for burials by an Order of Your Majesty in Council) as an open space under and pursuant to the Act of the forty-fourth and forty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-four and the Acts amending the same was on the tenth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three granted by the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London to the Vestry of the civil parish of Saint Mary Islington and such burial ground has since been so laid out and is now under the charge and control of the said Vestry.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary Islington which is mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district or new parish for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named (when such district shall have become as it will by operation of law at once become a new parish) ‘The New Parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Holloway-road, Islington.’

“And we further recommend and propose that the said church or chapel of ease being a consecrated church in use for the purposes of Divine worship and situate within the limits of the proposed new parish shall as from the day last-mentioned be and for that purpose we hereby specify the same church or chapel of ease as the parish church of the said new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Holloway-road Islington.

“And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of and nomination to the said new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Holloway-road Islington shall vest as at present in the vicar of the said parish of Saint Mary Islington and his successors for the time being.

“Provided always that the foregoing scheme shall be without prejudice to a certain judgment delivered at Saint Paul's Cathedral on the twentieth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three by the Judge of the Consistory Court of London upon an application by the Vestry of the civil parish of Saint Mary Islington for the faculty for laying out the burial ground attached to the said church or chapel of ease under the Open Spaces Acts as aforesaid and to the faculty issued in pursuance of such judgment.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The new parish of Saint Mary Magdalene Holloway-road, Islington being:—

“All that part of the parish of Saint Mary Islington in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London which is bounded upon the
