AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of July, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of "The Saint Pancras Ecclesiastical Regulation Act 1868," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and of "The Saint Pancras Ecclesiastical Regulation Act 1868," have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the parish (sometime district) of Saint Andrew Haverstock Hill and partly out of the parish (sometime district) of Saint Martin Kentish Town both within the original limits of the parish of Saint Pancras in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Saint Andrew Haverstock Hill and of the said parish of Saint Martin Kentish Town which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas under the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the sixteenth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three and published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of the same month the benefice (being a rectory) of All Hallows the Great and All Hallows the Less and the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Michael Royal and Saint Martin Vintry within the city and diocese of London were united into one benefice and it was by the same Order provided amongst other things that an ecclesiastical district formed or to be formed within the limits of the Metropolis should be selected by the Bishop of London as the district for which a church should be built (and consecrated by the name and style of All Hallows, or such other name and style as may appear to such Bishop to be most expedient) out of the proceeds of the sale or sales which are about to be carried into effect, of the materials and site of the church of All Hallows the Great which as directed by that Order, is to be taken down.

"And whereas the district hereinafter proposed to be constituted has been selected by the said Bishop of London as the district for which a church shall be built and consecrated as provided by the said Order of Your Majesty in Council.

"And whereas out of the net proceeds of the sale or sales hereinbefore mentioned we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners are authorized by the said Order in Council after setting apart a sum of six thousand five hundred pounds or thereabouts for or towards certain objects specified by such Order, to appropriate the remainder of such net proceeds for or towards the acquisition of a suitable site for and the erection of a new church within the limits of the said proposed district as the church for such district and if the balance of the amount of such remainder shall be sufficient, to appropriate the same for or towards the acquisition of a suitable site for, and the erection of a parsonage house within the limits of the said proposed district as the parsonage house for such district.

"And whereas under the terms of the said Order in Council it is further provided that out of the income of the united benefice of Saint Michael Royal with Saint Martin Vintry and All Hallows the Great and Less, and after making provision for the payment to the rector thereof and his successors of a clear annual sum of six hundred pounds out of the income of the said united benefice the residue of such income shall subject to certain contingencies form the endowment or part of the endowment of the new district hereinafter proposed to be constituted.

"And whereas the amount at present so available for the endowment of the said proposed district when duly constituted is two hundred and thirty-one pounds per annum or thereabouts.

"And whereas the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and when the said district shall have become a new parish then of the same new parish will under the provisions of the said Order in Council be vested alternately in
