And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore. Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol at Gloucester and Bristol respectively.

C. I. Peel.

Whitehall, July 30, 1894.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation on the occasion of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of York giving Birth to a Prince, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Herbert Henry Asquith, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been laid before Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Madam,

WE, the Archbishop, Bishops, and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, desire to approach Your Majesty with the expression of our loyal joy and devotion to Your Majesty, and of our gratitude to Almighty God that He has granted to Your Majesty to see a Prince in the fourth generation of the direct line born in Your Royal House.

Your Majesty's care for the happiness of all Your People causes Your subjects to feel as blessings to themselves every event which gives a domestic or personal gratification to Your Majesty.

In this instance they have further cause for gratitude in this far-reaching promise of the stability of Your Royal Line on the Throne of Your Ancestors, whilst the loved and admired character of His Illustrious Parents affords, by God's blessing, the best hope that the Infant Prince will be trained and live in all those principles and associations which Your Majesty's Reign has been exemplified, and which are most dear to Your Majesty's subjects.

Dated 3rd July, 1894.

Edw. Cantuar, President.

D 2

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Aldermen and Councillors of the County of Middlesex in Council assembled this 28th day of June, 1894, most humbly beg leave to offer our heartfelt congratulations upon the Birth of a Son to their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of York.

We rejoice in an event which we humbly and earnestly hope may add to the domestic felicity of Your Royal Family.

We devoutly pray that Your Majesty may be preserved through many years, and that the succession to the Throne of these Realms may be long and happily continued in the line of Your Majesty's descendants.

The common seal of the County Council of Middlesex affixed in the presence of

R. M. Littler,

Chairman of the County Council.

Walter Geo. Austin,

Deputy Clerk of the County Council.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace for Your County of Worcester, beg most dutifully and respectfully to express our happiness at the birth of a Prince, the third Person in the direct line of succession to the Imperial Crown of this realm.

Your Majesty's most gracious rule, extending for a longer period than that with one exception of any Sovereign in our history, has proved to all Your subjects the blessings that follow from a Monarchy which preserves intact the rights of property, order, and law, and has made it their most earnest prayer for a continuance of these blessings.

To us who, by Your Majesty's favour, are permitted in Your name and on Your behalf to aid in the administration of not the least important part of the Law of Your Realm, we find with thankfulness that even among the classes with whom we have especially to deal, the reforms and improvements introduced under Your Gracious Reign in the administration of Justice are regarded with gratitude as proofs of Your Majesty's solicitude for all ranks of Your subjects.

As we feel that Your Majesty's direct descendants trained in these principles and ideas that secure to us the blessings we enjoy are the best security that we can have for their continuance and extension, we most humbly and most dutifully venture to approach You with this assurance of our loyalty and devotion to Yourself and Your Family on this auspicious occasion.

J. W. Willis Bund, Chairman,
Worcestershire Quarter Sessions.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
