AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Mark Wolverhampton and of the new parish of Saint Jude Wolverhampton both in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

“Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-fifth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-fourth day of March following a part of the parish of Wolverhampton in the said county of Stafford and in the said diocese of Lichfield was constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and the same district was called ‘The District of Saint Mark Wolverhampton.’

“And whereas the said district of Saint Mark Wolverhampton has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

“And whereas by the authority of another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the seventh day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine and published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of the same month a part of the said new parish of Saint Mark Wolverhampton was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Jude situate within the limits of the same new parish and the same district chapelry was called ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Jude Wolverhampton.’

“And whereas the said district chapelry of Saint Jude Wolverhampton has also become a new parish under the provisions of the lastly-mentioned Acts.

“And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries
