

be united into one benefice We inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appeared to Us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent and that the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Peter in Exeter being the patrons or persons entitled to present to the said benefices of Saint Paul (now vacant) and of All Hallows Goldsmith-street (if the same were now vacant) consent to the proposed union.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council We caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to Us the said Archbishop against such union and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Exeter our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto the consents in writing of the patrons and a copy of the representation and notice before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And We do hereby certify the inquiry and consents aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for uniting the said benefices into one benefice with cure of souls for ecclesiastical purposes.

"As witness our hand this fourteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1894.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of "The Ecclesiastical Commission Act 1868" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of 'The Ecclesiastical Commission Act 1868,' section three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of a part of the property of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich for certain property belonging to us.

Whereas the lands and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked A are a part of the property of the Dean and Chapter of Norwich and the said Dean and Chapter have agreed that the said lands and hereditaments shall be transferred to us in consideration of the transfer to them of certain tithe rent-charges now belonging to us being the tithe rent-charges particularly described and set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked B.

"And whereas the terms of such transfer are in our opinion fair and reasonable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich and with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Norwich as visitor of the said dean and chapter certified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals that upon and from the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any further conveyance or act in the law the lands and hereditaments described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked A with their appurtenances together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged thereon which has been redeemed shall subject always to the liabilities and charges to which the said lands and hereditaments are now specifically liable be transferred to us in the manner contemplated by the said Act and that we shall be entitled to the rents profits and proceeds thereof as from the sixth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four and that in consideration for such transfer to us as aforesaid the tithe rent-charges particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked B together with the benefit of so much of the perpetual land tax charged thereon as has been redeemed shall subject always to the liabilities and charges to which the said tithe rent-charges are now specifically liable be transferred to the said dean and chapter in the manner contemplated by the said Act and that the said dean and chapter shall become entitled to the rents profits and proceeds thereof as from the said sixth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act or of any other Act of Parliament.
